Sir,

Through the Accountant General, Madras.

In inviting the attention of Government to their order No. 462, Home (Education), dated 9th April 1918, I have the honour to state that it is reported by the Hon. Secretary to the Tamilian Education Society, Madras, that he has also supplied the various institutions concerned with the two issues of his journal published prior to 1st January 1918, so as to complete the 1st Volume and give the readers a comprehensive idea of the matter dealt with in the various issues comprised in that volume and that he requests that the subscription due for the extra issues supplied, which comes to Rs 67/- calculated at the rate of Rs 2/- per annum for 6 issues, may also be ordered to be paid to him. Considering the advantage these schools would derive by having a complete set of the Journal I beg to support the Hony. Secretary's request.

I have the honour to be,
