R. B. Evans Esq., I.C.S.,

President, District Board,

Malabar

Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Local and Municipal Department

Sir,

L.M. No. 2926-14

With reference to Government endorsement No. 2045-1
L., dated 30--3--1918, communicating copy of G.O.No. 402 dated 23--3--1918 I have the honour to state that this District Board recommends that "the concessions referred to in the G.O.
should be extended to direct relations of recruits belonging to Marumakkathayam families subject to such restrictions may be considered necessary."

2. The matter was discussed at some length; but it was not found easy to suggest a definite rule. Some were in favour of saying direct nephews and nieces, others would include brothers and sisters.

3. I think that the principle of including nephews and nieces, who at least in some marumakkathayam families occupy the position of sons and daughters, is right; and the best solution would perhaps be to leave it to the recruit to nominate, say two children, whether sons, daughters, nephews, nieces, brothers or sisters. But then I think a similar concession will have to be extended to all, makkathayam men as well. The fact is of course that since combatant recruits must be not more than 25 the concessions as already announced would be of practically no immediate value in Malabar since few recruits have children and none have any old enough to go to school.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

President.

— Mr. Evans is wrong in saying that recruits have to be under 25. The age has been raised to 30.

I would not recommend the extension of the concession. It is hardly needed in Marumakkathayam families. I don't think there is any reason why the ~~xxxx~~ State should provide free education for the children of a man who has not enlisted. The fact that they are also children of the recruit's - - female relatives, while of some sentimental importance in Malabar, is a detail which we need, I think, hardly considered.

The conclusion that Mr. Evans proposes is rather a large order: it is ample; if possible, to be restricted to the children of men who actually inhabit: Mr. Evans may be asked to consider the matter further in view of the fact that the age limit has now been raised to 30.

No. 1292A-2, 7, 18. 6. 18

Dear Mr Evans,

Please refer to your letter, Ref on C. No. 61 G. L.F. of 13. 5. 18 regarding the extension of the concessions sanctioned in fo. no. 402 Home (Ed.) of 23. 3. 18 to direct relations of recruits in Malabar. The Govt. apprehend that if the proposal in para. 3 ^{of your letter} were adopted, it would result in the concessions being claimed by a very large number of children, especially as the age limit for recruits has now been raised to 30. ~~It is~~

The concessions might be restricted to the children of men who actually enlist.

I am to ask you to give further consideration to the question and to favour Govt. with your final recommendation in the matter.

Yours truly

No. 61

Dear Mr. Ramachandra Row,

Mr. Brown's D.O. 2298-2 dated 18th June 1918.

If the Government consider that the concession ought to be restricted to the sons and daughters of men who actually enlist, I have nothing to recommend. No recruit has, I think, claimed the concession in Malabar and probably none will: because, as I said, no recruits so far as I know have children old enough to go to school. But I am not a few applicants on behalf of young brothers and sisters.

2. If the Government wish to offer a concession of any real value, I would repeat my recommendation that they should extend it to not more than 2 (or whatever number may be fixed) of the children of the recruit's family--to be nominated by the recruit.

3. In the Marumakkathayam family, the Karanavan takes the place of the "father" or "head of the family" and the "children" are his brothers and sisters or his sisters' children; but to limit the concession to the children of families whose karanavans have enlisted would be absurd; because a karanavan is practically always above enlisting age. It is in fact impossible to apply the principle, that the concession is to be for the benefit of the children for whose education a recruit is responsible.

4. The concession is after all of no very extravagant value. School fees in elementary schools which contain only the four lower standards amount to 15 annas a year: if the school contains a fourth standard, the average fee is Rs. 2/6 a year. In secondary schools (middle) the average fees are about Rs. 20/ a year. In High school school forms, Rs. (40/-) Girls ^{and admitted at} ~~the~~ half-rates.

5. In Malabar, as Government are aware there is practically no Government land available for recruits and that may be a reason why Malabar should be liberally treated in this matter. The concession is not greatly needed to stimulate recruiting: but I think it would be appreciated if it were made substantial. As announced it seems to me ~~concerning~~.

Yours sincerely,

Kindly let me know whether the educational concessions granted in G.O.No.402 Home (Education), dated 23-3-1918 as extended in G.O.No.1088 Home (Education), dated 27-8-1918 can be granted to nephews of persons recruited from Marumakkathayam families. The reason for this reference is that G.O.No. 755^{Public} dated 22-10-24 and G.O.No.267 Law (Education), dated 19-2-1925 do not make mention of nephews of ex-army men. 7-5-1925.
