Read letter from M.R.RV., Rao Bahadur T. Raghavayya Pantulu Garu B.A., Acting Collector of Anantapur D. Dis. No.1969 of 1918, dated 17th July 1918:-

I have the honour to submit herewith an application in the form prescribed in appendix VII of Board's Standing Order No.127 for permanent exemption from examination rules on behalf of Pujari Narasappa, permanent 2nd Clerk on Rs.30 in the Hindupur Taluk office.

2. The Clerk is an unpassed candidate. The Tahsildar of Hindupur under whom he is serving reports that the clerk though unpassed is the best clerk of his office. In supporting the Tahsildar's recommendation, the Divisional Officer, Panukonda remarks that the clerk comes from the Sathani caste which is one of the backward classes of non-brahmins and which is hardly represented in the public service. The nominee therefore deserves special encouragement. I would invite the attention of the Government to the letters of Messrs. H.T. Reilly and S.W.G.I. MacIver bearing this office D. Dis Nos. 1481 dated 16th May 1912 and 3871 dated 12th November 1913 respectively. The nominee was exempted by Government to hold a permanent place on Rs.30 in their Order No.1187 Mis. dated 12th December 1913. I therefore strongly recommend that the Government may be pleased to sanction his permanent unconditional exemption from the Examination rules so as to enable him to appear for all the special tests required for posts in the Revenue Department.

Read letter from M.R.Ry., Rao Bahadur T. Raghavayya Pantulu Garu B.A., Acting Collector of Anantapur, R.G.I.C. No.1887 of 1918, dated 20th July 1918.

Reference:-

In the first of the letters read above, the Collector of Anantapur recommends to Government the permanent and and unconditional exemption of P. Narasappa, 2nd clerk, Taluk office, Hindupur, from the examination rules so as to enable him to appear for all special tests required for posts in the Revenue Department. In the second letter, the Collector applies to the Board for the temporary exemption of this clerk for a period of six months to enable him to hold the post of head clerk of the Hindupur Taluk office on Rs.35, ^{presumably} permanently with a view to his immediate appointment to the post.

2. In the circumstances reported by the Collector, the Board recommends that Narasappa be exempted from the examination rules with a view to his holding appointments carrying a salary of Rs.35 in the Collectorate including the post of Revenue Inspector. This exemption will enable him not only to hold the post of Taluk Head clerk, for which the Collector has applied to the Board for temporary exemption, but also to appear for the Revenue test. If, after passing the Revenue test and serving as Revenue Inspector for the prescribed period, he is found fit for further promotion, the collector may address the Board for further exemption.
