Q.—(a) Will the Government be pleased to state whether any further steps have been taken to bring into operation the scheme for the reorganization of the male and female inspecting agencies, Education Department?

(b) Will the Government be pleased to publish all the papers relating to those schemes before further action is taken?

[Meeting of the 13th August 1918]

Home (Edn) Department.

In reply to a question asked by the Hon'ble Mr. Venkatapati Raju at the meeting of the Leg. Council held on the 2nd April 1917 the Govt. stated that the question of the general reorganization of the inspecting agency was held in abeyance pending its consideration in the light of the recommendations of the Public Service Commission. The Asst. Member's enquiry is whether any thing has been done in the matter since then.

2. Male inspecting agency. In submitting the views of this Govt. on the recommendations of the P. S. Commission to the Govt. of India, mention has been made of the need for increasing the number of inspecting officers - para. 14 of letter no. 951 Edn D. 17. 7. 18. This, however, does not show any advance with the scheme. The remarks of this Govt. have to be considered by the Govt. of India and the latter should pass orders thereon. It is only after receipt of the Govt. of India's order in the general scheme that this Govt. can make any progress with the scheme.

as full details of the scheme have not yet been worked out & submitted to the Govt. of India

3. Female inspecting agency. In the linked file a reference has been made to the D.P.D. enquiring whether the needs of the department require the immediate employment of an additional inspectors. No further action has been taken with regard to the rest of the female inspecting agency.

4. The following draft answer is submitted for approval.

(a) No further action has been taken in regard to the reorganization of the male inspecting agency. The strength of the female inspecting agency is under consideration.

(b) The Govt. are unable to entertain the suggestion. The file may be forwarded to the D.P.D. for remarks.

Please see the amendment to the question on the previous page. With reference to the omission of the word "further", the answer to clause (a) may perhaps be modified as follows:—
"No steps have been taken as regards the male inspecting agency. The strengthening of the female inspecting agency is under consideration."
