Sir,

With reference to Government Memo. No. 331 B-1., Home (Education) dated 14th February 1918 regarding the report on the subject of the introduction in European schools of the syllabus of lessons on temperance issued by the English Board of Education called for in sub-paragraph (6) of G.O. No. 876, Home (Education) dated 2nd July 1917, I have the honour to state that I had intended to consult Mr. Melville, the permanent Inspector of European and Training Schools on this question as well as on other important matters on his return from leave in January last, But as he was subsequently granted an extension of leave, I am addressing the present acting Inspector of 3

European and Training Schools and the Inspector of Schools, 9th Circle, on the question and shall submit my report as soon as I obtain their views.

I have the honour to be,
