Sir,

With reference to G.O.No. 890, Home (Education) Department, dated the 5th July 1918, sanctioning a Special Assistant for publication, a Reader and a Pandit, I beg to submit that I have appointed outsiders for the two latter appointments. In the chain of appointments made consequent upon the transfer of Mr. G. Venkoba Rao from the permanent regular section to the temporary section as Special Assistant, an Epigraphical student's place on Rs. 75/- has fallen vacant temporarily. Among the applicants for the place are some who have already been holding permanent appointments in the public service. In selecting any one of such candidates for the Epigraphical Student's place which is temporarily vacant, I beg to be in-informed whether the restrictions laid down in para 3 of G.O. No. 1008, Public, dated 24th May 1916 as regards the probationary period and the pay of the appointment in the case, evidently, of outsiders entering this department for the first time, will apply to candidates already in permanent service.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

H. Krishna Sastri.

Epigraphical Students

Le-1805/B, from the A.A.S. for Epigraphy, 484 d/23rd Aug. 1918.

In 1909, the late Rai Bahadur

V. Venkayya suggested that in order to ensure that a proper man is appointed, the candidate selected for app. as "Epigraphical Student" should be appointed on probation and that he should be confirmed and get his increase only after two years of approved service. This recommendation was approved by Govt.

p. 3 of G.O. No. 265 Puli, d/15th April 1909.

Later on, Mr. Krishnappa Sastri represented that a continuous period of probation was somewhat tedious and that official expediency often required and even justified shortening the period to one year in suitable instances. The Govt.

accordingly authorized the A.A.S. to entertain epigraphical students on one year's probation to begin with and to extend that period by another year, if necessary. (G.O. No 636 Edn. d/26th May 1914).

In the letter disposed of the above G.O. the A.A.S. even suggested that a general order should issue stating that applicants for Epigraphical Students place in his office who already held permanent appts. in other offices ^(should) be granted a lien on their original appt. extending from one to five years. Though the Govt. declined to entertain the suggestion it shows that both the Govt. and the A.A.S. intended from the first that the rule regarding probation ^(should) apply to direct recruits as well as to those apptd. from other Depts. As a matter of fact, candidates who had previous next appts. elsewhere have, in previous years, been appointed as Epigraphical Students and they were all evidently entertained on probation. That being so, it is not clear why the A.A.S. should ~~feel this difficulty in the matter~~ ~~be so much surprised~~ now.

2 In regard to the pay admissible during the period of probation, para 3 of Go. 1008 Pubs, 2/24th May 1916 is clear.
If however a suitable candidate who holds a permanent post in some other Dept. on pay ^{is forthcoming} exceeding Rs 50 p.m., his case will have to be specially ~~dealt~~ dealt with.

3 For the present the A.A.S. may be told that the rule re: probation and initial pay applies equally to new apptd. from other Depts. Draft Sdls.:

Though candidates already in Public Service ~~and~~ may have had official experience, they must obviously be new to epigraphic work & should undergo probation as others.
