Sir,

As the sanction accorded in G.O.No.1293 Home (Education) dated 1st December 1916 to the retention of the temporary teacher on Rs15 per mensem employed in the Government elementary school for boys at Venkatapuram expired by 11th November 1917, I have the honour at the instance of the Government Agent, Godavari (vide the enclosed copy of his letter D.Dis.No.244 ag. dated 27th June 1918) to request that Government will be pleased to sanction the permanent retention of the post with effect from 12th November 1917. Though the number on the rolls of the school has remained almost the same the strength of the higher standards has improved as will be observed from the particulars noted on the margin; and a staff of three teachers is necessary.

2. Provision for the salary of the teacher during the current year has been included in the budget estimates of the school.

3. The delay in the submission of the application is due to its late receipt from the Government Agent.

I have the honour to be,

"I have the honour to state that the Government in their order No.1293 Home (Educational), dated 1st December 1916, sanctioned the retention for a further period of one year from 12th November 1916 of the temporary teacher on Rs15/- per mensem employed in the Government Elementary school for boys at Venkatapur, Nugur Taluk. The sanction having expired by 11th November 1917, the Assistant Agent, Bhadrachalam and the Inspector of schools recommend the permanent continuance of the post as the strength of the school which contains 5 classes has been steadily on the increase during the sanctioned period. I support their recommendation as the number of classes and the total strength justify the permanent retention of a second assistant under rule 81 of the Educational rules and request that you will be pleased to obtain the sanction of Government for the permanent retention of the additional post with effect from 12th November 1917.

The statement showing the strength and average attendance of the school for 9 months is enclosed for reference."

from the D.P.D. Re No 5751 of 6-8-18

Permanent retention of the temporary teacher Mr. [Name] employed in the Govt. School at Venkataswami.

In L.O. 1293 Home (Edn) of 12-12-16 the Govt. sanctioned the retention for a period of one year of the temporary teacher on Rs 15/- per month employed in the Govt. elementary School for boys, at Venkataswami, subject to the condition that the school should show improved attendance.

The D.P.D. now recommends the permanent retention of the post with effect from 12-11-17. 2. The strength of the school has improved during the year, the number on rolls being 67 as against 58 in the previous year. A staff of three teachers is therefore necessary - Rule 81 of the Madras Ed. Rules. The Inspector of Schools and the Govt. Agent, Godavari, also recommend the permanent retention of the temporary post.

3. A draft order sanctioning the permanent retention of the post is submitted which if approved may go to Home (Indl) and Finl for acceptance.

Attention is solicited to para 2 of D.P. 33 letter, Mr. Hershaw's note and orders on pages 2, 7-8 and 10 of S.O. 1293 Home (22%) 3-1-12-16. Although with reference to the strength of the Venkataswaram School in 1916 (58) a staff of 3 teachers was admissible under rule 81 of the Educational rules, Financial suggested that in view of the decline in strength the third teacher in the school, who was continuing ~~in the school~~ on a temporary footing, should be dispensed with until the school showed improved attendance. The teacher was however continued. It is now proposed to make the post permanent

2 It will be seen from para 2 of that the strength of the school is only 67 against 58 in 1916 or there is an increase of 9. The present strength is less than that in 1914 (71), when the temporary teacher was first allowed. It does not therefore appear that on the ground of increase in strength there is a case for making the post permanent. The D.P.S. would make the post permanent 'as the strength of the higher standards has improved'. Here again, the ~~disproportionate~~ increase does not seem to be striking. For instance, the strength in the IV and V standards together was 5 in 1914, and 9 in 1916. It is now only 5. Taking the III, IV and V standards together, the strength was 6 in 1914 and 16 in 1916. It is now 17 or nearly the same as that in 1916. In these circumstances, orders are solicited whether it will not suffice if the teacher is continued for another year ^(or two) instead of making the post permanent.

3 Under rule 2 under art. 80 on page 25 of the Madras Supplement to the C.S.R. ^{application for} ~~sanction~~ the continuance of temporary establishments should be ~~applied for~~ ^{made} sufficiently early so that the sanction of the higher authority may be obtained before the termination of the original period, ~~original term of the temporary establishment~~ ^{period}. In the present case the sanctioned term of the temporary teacher expired by 11th November 1917 and the D.P.S. states that the delay in the submission of the application is due to its late receipt from the Govt. agent. If the teacher is now to be continued only temporarily as suggested in para 2 above, orders are solicited whether Home Dept. may be requested to add a sentence to the draft that the rule in the Madras Supplement should be strictly observed if it is desired to continue the teacher beyond the term for which the teacher may now be sanctioned.

The attendance has not improved to such an extent as to warrant a permanent appointment to the post. It has better be sanctioned only as temporary. I think for two years from the 12th Jan: 17.
