(D) Please see G.O. No. 1337 Edn. dt. 11-12-16 and G.O. No. 22 Edn. dt. 8-1-18 for the previous questions and answers referred to by the A.D. Member.

2. The file containing the recommendation of the Educational Conference was circulated to H. E. the Governor, H. M. 3 and H. M. 1 on the 24th April 1918, and it is still in circulation. The following draft answer is suggested:—

The recommendations of the Conference are still under consideration.

3. The file may be forwarded to the A.D. M. for remarks, if any.

I presume that the answer is that the matter is still under the consideration of Government perhaps with the addition that they have examined the financial aspect of the proposal.

For orders on whether the draft answer overleaf will be approved. It may not be advisable to say, as suggested by the D.P., that the financial aspects of the proposal have been examined so far.

The draft answer suggested by the D.P. is as follows:—

The matter is still under the consideration of Government. [The Government have examined the financial aspects of the proposal.]

2. Perhaps the portion in brackets may be omitted.
