To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Home (Education)

Department.

Sir,

In G.O.No. 1015, Home (Education) dated 25th September 1916, Government sanctioned the continuance of the domestic science classes for European schools up to the 31st December 1918, and they stated that the proposals approved in G.O.No. 761, Home (Education), dated 12th June 1918 would have effect only up to the date mentioned above. The Inspector of European and Training Schools recommends the retention of these classes permanently. The classes are unquestionably very useful for European schools, but I very much doubt whether their permanent retention can be advocated unless their benefits can be extended to non-European schools or at any rate to teachers in them. The matter is under my consideration, and in the mean
