This is the Assistant Superintendent of Archaeology for Epigraphy, Madras.

Sir
I beg to inform you that I have been transferred to Anantapur. The Topographical list of Inscriptions has been printed, and my transfer has not therefore interfered much with the prosecution of that work. I beg, however, to inform you that the index is not yet complete. The book covers the singularly large number of 1722 pages and each page contains sometimes more than 500 names. The work of framing the index is therefore very burdensome. Of the 1722 pages 1322 pages have been gone through. Myself and my clerk Mr P. Srikantha Aiyar are busy doing the remaining. Mr Srikantha Aiyar's services are over on the 10th of this month. I therefore beg to request you to extend his tenure of appointment for two months. By the end of this time, I am confident, the index — it will be a copious one — covering as many as 200 pages — will be complete.

I beg to further request you to allow Mr Srikantha Aiyar to work in Madras, though I am at Anantapur. He has got every instruction from me and I am also corresponding with him. I beg to request you to give

we formal permission to make this arrangement.

Home (Edn)

It was originally stated by M. R. Ry. V. Rangacharya, for the author of the Epigraphical list of inscriptions, that the services of a clerk may be placed at his disposal for three or four months in order to help him in the preparation of an index to the Epigraphical list of inscriptions. It was also anticipated that the work could be finished up in these three or four months. Vide his letter dt p. 3 of G.O. No. 4100 Edn, dt 28th Aug. 1917. Accordingly in the above G.O., the Govt. sanctioned the employment of a clerk on Rs 20 p.m. inclusive of G. C. A. for four months and the clerk appears to have been actually entertained from the 10th Oct. 1917. Later on the clerk's tenure of app^t was extended twice, three months on each occasion, and the latest ~~term~~ extension expired by the 10th Aug. last. In the cited letter in Mr. Rangacharya's
