In G.O. No 138 Financial 2nd May 1905, the Govt sanctioned the purchase of 12 copies of the Sanskrit work "Sivarkamani Deepika" of Appayya Dikshita and directed the distribution of the copies as follows: -

Govt Colleges specified by the D.P.D.	4
Pachayappa's College	1
Christian College	1
The more important of the Sanskrit institutions in the Presidency. } -	4
Oriental Mus. Library	1
Connemara Public Library	1

Total. 12

2. Mr. S. Mahadeva Sastri of Tanjore states that the publisher died in 1915 leaving the work incomplete & that parts I to IX of the publication have been supplied and paid for, and he enquires whether parts X & XI may now be supplied with a bill for Rs 8/1/- to complete the work.

3 As the Govt have already agreed to subscribe for 12 copies of the publication and as it is ~~necessary~~ ^{the first nine} that the institution which have already got parts of the work should have also the other two parts to make the publication complete, ~~for~~ it seems desirable that Mr Mahabhar Gattu should be asked to supply 12 copies ^(each) of Parts X and XI with a bill of costs. The remarks of the D.O. may be invited up.
