To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

H O M E Department.
(EDUCATION)

Sir,

M.R.Ry. B. Raghavendra Rao Avargal, Lecturer, Government Arts College, Rajahmundry, having retired from service with effect from 18th August 1918 the temporary personal allowance of Rs. 65/- per mensem held by him under G.O.No. 1368 Home (Education), dated 13th December 1916 has fallen vacant from that date.

In the matter of award of these personal allowances it has been held hitherto that the only safe criterion is the age of the officer, for the older a person is the less will be his chance of profiting from any scheme of reorganization. I may also invite attention to para 2 of Mr. Stone's letter to Government Cl. No. 11, dated 17th March 1916 from which it will be observed that it was not intended that an officer of the Provincial Educational

Educational Service in receipt of acting allowance of Rs. 100/- per mensem in the Indian Educational Service should be granted the personal allowance of Rs. 65/-. The case of Messrs. Moss, Coombes and Wilkinson whose ages are respectively 52, 51 and 52 (on 19th August 1918) may therefore be left out of account for the present. The other officers in the Provincial Educational Service who completed 50 years of age on 18th August 1918 are the following :-

- (1) Mr. H.W. Callaghan -- born 6th August 1868
- (2) M.R.Ry. T.K. Hanumanta Rao -- born on 30th June 1868
- (3) Mr. A.V.J. Vas -- born 5th June 1867
- & (4) M.R.Ry. S. Subba Rao, Superintendent of Sanskrit Schools -- born 12th April 1865

Of these the case of the last mentioned officer who was admitted into the department in July 1912 and who was promoted to the 9th grade of the Provincial Educational Service on Rs. 200/- suddenly from the 4th grade on Rs. 125/- in the Subordinate Educational Service - Collegiate Branch, after a short service of 6 years, deserves no consideration at present. Of the remaining three it will be seen that Mr. A.V.J. Vas is the oldest and is likely to retire sooner than the rest and I have therefore the honour to recommend that he be granted temporarily until further orders the personal allowance of Rs. 65/- per mensem vacated by M.R.Ry. B. Raghavendra Rao ~~was~~ with effect from 18th August 1918.

I make this recommendation, viz., the grant of the allowance temporarily or until further orders, advisedly in view to meet the possibility of any of the Provincial Educational Service officers who are over 50 years of age now acting in the Indian Educational Service being deprived later of his acting allowance though it is only if some one older than Mr. Vas loses such an allowance that the case will occur.

✓ I beg to add that my recommendation is based on the notes left by Mr. Stone.

I have the honour to be, Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
B. Raghavendra Rao
for Director of Public Instruction.

Subject. Personal allowance held by M.R.Ry B. Raghavendra
Rao in the Provincial Ed Service.

The D.P.I recommends that Mr. A.V.J. Vas may be granted the personal allowance of Rs 65/- per mensem ^(which was) till recently held by M.R.Ry B. Raghavendra Rao. He points out that barring M.R.Ry S. Subba Rao, who entered the service only recently, Mr Vas is the oldest of the officers who may claim the allowance on the ground that they have completed 50 years of age. ~~and consequently are not likely to benefit by any scheme of reorganisation~~ From the quarterly list of officers of the Department, it is observed that M.R.Ry K.E.S. Anantanarayana Ayyar, Assistant Inspector of Schools, Coimbatore, in the ninth grade, permanent, and eighth grade, provisional, of the Provincial Educational Service, is older than Mr Vas. His name is not mentioned in the Director's letter as one of the officers who completed 50 year of age on the 18th August 1918. It is for consideration whether the Director may be consulted as to why this officer's name is left out. If ^{how} no such reference is considered necessary, the draft below is for approval.
