Station C.U.D.D.A.L.O.R.E., Thursday, the 8th August 1918. Dated the 191

From (Name) S.G. Roberts Esquire I.C.S., (Designation) District Judge, South Arcot.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Home (Education) Department.
Thro' The Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Madras.
Sir,

I have the honour to submit a memorial from S.R. Sundaresa Ayya, Type-writing Clerk and Short-hand-writer of the District and Sessions Court of South Arcot, requesting that he may be drafted into the regular clerical establishment as a special case such as is contemplated in para 3 of G.O.No.369, Financial, dated the 4th May 1918.

2. In forwarding this memorial I have the honour to say, not only that I entirely agree with Mr.Hamnett and Mr.Moberly in the very favourable view that they have taken of the memorialist's ability both as a Typist and as a Short-hand-writer but that I am satisfied that he has very considerably improved in the two years and ten months in which I have been in charge of this Court.

3. With regard to the anticipation of the memorialist that he is likely to become impaired in hearing, which would be a serious handicap to him and would lead to a loss of pay which he does not in reality - deserve, I can say from my own experience what a grievous handicap the slightest deafness is to any one officiating, in or attending, a Court of Law in any capacity, especially for a Short-hand-writer, and in view of the laborious nature of the memorialist's occupation and of the loyal, willing and faithful service which he has always rendered and which has won the admiration of two of the most experienced Judges who ever presided over this Court, I have the honour to recommend this memorial to the most favourable consideration of Government and to request that the High Court may be pleased to support it with their valuable recommendation.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Sg. R. S. S.

District Judge.

NO. 9.8.1918

To

His Excellency the Governor in Council,
For St. George, Madras,

Thro'

The Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Madras,

and The District and Sessions Judge,

South Arcot.

The humble memorial of S.R. Sundaresa Ayya, Type-writing Clerk and Short-hand-writer of the District and Sessions Court of South Arcot, for drafting the memorialist into the regular clerical establishment as a special case as contemplated in para 3 of G.O.No.369, Financial, dated the 4th May 1918,

Most Respectfully Sheweth:-

That your Excellency's memorialist is the Type-writing Clerk and Short-hand-writer of the District and Sessions Court of South Arcot on Rs.35/- and draws also Rs.30/-, duty allowance as Short-hand-writer, which also has now been declared to count towards pension and leave. The memorialist has been discharging his duties in both the capacities to the entire satisfaction of his superiors as will be apparent from the copies of testimonials herein enclosed and given him by the several senior Judges under whom he served. He has put in a qualifying service of over 13 years in the Judicial Department and has passed the following Examinations.

Short-hand	Intermediate Grade)	Group Certificate
Type-writing	Do.	) in Short-hand.
Book-keeping	Do.
Banking	Elementary.
Commercial Correspondence (now known as theory and practice of commerce.)	Elementary Lower Secondary.

A 6

2. Your memorialist is not eligible to hold any post other than the one which he holds at present for want of the general educational qualification though he is capable of discharging any onerous duty of a Clerk or of a Head Ministerial Officer in the Subordinate Courts of the Judicial Department as satisfactorily and as efficiently as any one who possesses the minimum general educational qualification required for such posts.

3. The then District and Sessions Judge, P.H. Hamnett, Esquire, I.C.S., (since retired) recommended in 1914 the memorialist's exemption from Examination rules as a special case (a copy of his letter No. 10083 dated 11th November 1914 to the Registrar, High Court, Madras, is herewith submitted for favour of perusal) but the memorialist was not fortunate enough to obtain the exemption applied for (vide please letter from the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department, to the Hon'ble the Chief Justice of the High Court, Madras, No. 1432, Educational, Mis. dated 15th December 1914).

Why?
This is a hypothetical

4. The memorialist apprehends that he cannot continue to discharge both the duties with the same vigour throughout his service. One of the essential qualifications of a Short-hand-writer is sharp and quick hearing. If on account of advancement in years he happens to become short of hearing by degrees then he may have to forego the duty allowance of Rs. 30/- for no fault of his and will have to be content as a Type-writing Clerk on Rs. 35/- which means a reduction of Rs. 30/- per mensem though he will, in every other respect, be capable of discharging any other onerous duties of a clerk in the regular line. Further to continue as a Type-writing Clerk throughout the memorialist's official career will be very hard on the memorialist as he has already spent the most vigorous part of his service, i.e., nearly 18 years as a Type-writing Clerk - both in public and in private offices.

Copy of communication from F.H.Hamnett, Esquire, I.C.S District Judge, South Arcot, to the Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Madras, No.10083, dated 11th November 1914.

I have the honour to forward herewith an application of S.R.Sundaresa Ayya, Type-writing Clerk and Short-hand-writer of this Court praying (1) for his exemption from the operation of Article (1) of the Public Service Notification up to the post of a Record-keeper in this Department on Rs.50/- or Rs.60/- and (2) for permission to apply for such of the Special Tests for which School Final men are allowed to appear.

2. As Type-writing Clerk the applicant is now drawing a pay of Rs.33/- in the 25-1-35 grade with a local allowance of Rs.30/- as Short-hand-writer. As he has not passed either the late Matriculation Examination or the present School Final Examination, he is not eligible to hold posts carrying a pay of more than Rs.35/- in the Clerical line.
The Clerk has passed the Lower Secondary Examination and some of the Technical Examinations. He has put in 10 years service and possesses an excellent knowledge of English and a very good knowledge of Office work. In my opinion he is quite competent to hold posts carrying a pay of more than Rs.35/-. It is most unfortunate therefore that under Rule 1 of the Public Service Notification he cannot hold posts carrying any higher pay in the Clerical line though he can rise up to Rs.35/- as a Typist.

3. I therefore strongly recommend the application of S.R.Sundaresa Ayya for exemption from the Examination rules.

S.R.Sundaresaiah, Type-writing Clerk of the District Court is well up to his work and was confirmed by me in his present post after having acted for a considerable time and given me satisfaction.

S.R.Sundaresa Ayyar, Typist in the District Court of South Arcot, acted for a short time as Short-hand-writer. He is a very good typist, and has a fair knowledge of the mechanism of a type-writer. I have an Empire No.2 type-writer, and, although he had never seen that kind of type-writer before, he soon understood it. I was very satisfied with his work during the time I presided over the Court. I found him hard working, anxious to please and very obliging.

Coimbatore, 10th November 1912. (Sd) H.Moberly.

S.R.Sundaresaiah is an excellent Typist and Short-hand writer. Though he has not passed high educational tests, he has an excellent knowledge of English, is very intelligent and smart at any kind of work in the office. I have recommended that he should be exempted from passing the educational tests and given promotion in the regular line. Cuddalore, 18th November 1914. (Sd) F.H.Hamnett, I.C.S.,

S.R.Sundaresa Ayyar worked in this office as a clerk typist for about 10½ months and did his work satisfactorily.

He was called on to resign his post as he asked for extension of leave, which could not be granted.

as clerk typist for a period of about 10½ months (1901-02) during which time he acquitted himself satisfactorily in the discharge of his duties. 9

He is an energetic and intelligent young man and always worked willingly. Besides being a neat and fast Typist he is also able to do clerical work well.

S.R.Sundaresa Aiyah has been acting for over six months as Typist Clerk of the District Court of South Arcot. I have found him a very obedient and willing clerk; and I dare say he will earn the appreciation of his superiors wherever he may be employed. Though he has not passed any University Examination I think he possesses a fair knowledge of English and I have seen him type-writing lengthy drafts and judgments in this office with ease and rapidity. The execution of work entrusted to him has been uniformly good.

I have known R. Sundareswaran as a Clerk of the Lessees' Head Office, Sivaganga, for a year. He was working quite steadily and willingly. His general good behaviour and his eagerness to learn work have always given me great pleasure. He resigns his place as he says to prosecute his studies further. I am sure he will prosper in life if he continues to maintain his present character.

Subject - Exemption from examination

An application on behalf of the present nominee ^(of the Dist. Judge) was considered and negatived in 1914 - Vid. No.

(A) 1432 Ed. 1, d/ 15th Dec. 1914. The clerk's work has been ~~very~~ favourably reported on by three successive Dist.
Judges. The only ground on which the application of 1914 was rejected was that the applicant, an unpassed candidate, could hope to get a total salary of Rs 80 as shorthand-writer and typist, if only he passed the advanced test in typewriting and that exemptions of the kind, if granted would be prejudicial to the interests of qualified men in service.

2 The present application is for a reconsideration of the previous order: the clerk wants to go up to post of Sheristadar of a Sub-court that of a head clerk in a Dist. Court.

My dear Brown,

This is to introduce S.R.Sundaresa Ayya, my Short-hand-writer and Typist who wants to be exempted from the operation of Article 1 of the Public Service Notification to hold posts on higher pay in the Judicial Department inclusive of the Sheristadar of a Sub-Court and the Head Clerk of a District and Sessions Court or any post in Government Offices on a pay not less than Rs.100/- for which cash security is essential.

He failed in my predecessor Mr.F.Hamnett's time and I can only say that Mr.Hamnett recommended him strongly, and I can do so even more strongly as he is very much improved though he was always a good Short-hand-writer. He is always haunted by the night-mare of deafness and loss of ~~manual~~ ^{manual} dexterity which might bring down his income very much just at the time when he most needs it.

I might have mentioned in writing to Government that he is also in charge of the Stationery of this Court and he does his duty in that respect with the same care and intelligence as he displays in Type-writing and Shorthand work. In everything there is a possibility to

A series of District

this man & have recommended the exemption. He came to see me & seemed intelligent. It is amazing for the head of an prevented from doing so by a technical difficulty. Please see also the f.d. enumerated above.

May the exemption be granted?

In view of the repeated recommendations & precedents, I am for sanctioning an exemption. But it seems to me that it is not proper nor in accordance with precedent to sanction exemption right off without limit. His fitness to discharge duties in the regular line has yet to be seen. Why not exempt up to posts carrying 80 Rs salary say; then it will be open to subsequent Jt. Judges to recommend further exemption if applicant acquits himself well?
