No. 759

Government of India,
Department of Education.
(Education)
Simla, the 3rd September 1918.

From

The Hon'ble Mr.H.Sharp,C.S.I.,C.I.E., Offg.Secretary to the Government of India,

To

The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Home (Education) Department.

Sir,

With reference to the correspondence ending with the Government of India (Home Department) letter no.860-864, dated the 14th November 1906, I am directed to state for information that, though they still consider that Rs.500 should be the maximum honorarium ordinarily admissible to officials who are selected by the local University for the inspection of colleges, the Government of India desire to leave it entirely to the discretion of the local Government to decide in future whether sufficient reasons exist for granting a larger honorarium.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

W. Sharp

Offg.Secretary to the Govt.of India.

Home (Ed. M.) Dept.

to 1908/9, from the G. of I., 759, d/ 3.7.18

In the Home Dept. Letter No.

860-64, d/ 14th Nov. 1906, the G. of I. laid down certain principles to regulate the payment of remuneration to persons selected to serve on university commissions for the inspection of colleges and these were communicated to the Madras University - Vide G. No. 802 Ed. M., d/ 8th Dec. 1906. One of the principles was that any officer of Govt. who might be selected to serve on such commission and within whose ordinary duties the work connected with college inspections did not clearly fall should not be paid an honorarium in excess of Rs 500 without the previous sanction of the Govt. of India.

2 The Govt. of India, though still of the opinion, that the maximum remuneration in such cases should continue to be Rs 500, leaves it to Local Govts. to decide whether in future whether sufficient reasons exist for the grant of a larger honorarium.

3 The point now for consideration is whether this announcement should be ^{communicated} to the Syndicate.

Subject:-

Remuneration to members of the Commissions for the inspection of colleges

From

The Hon'ble Mr. H. Sharpe, C.S.I., C.I.E.,

Off. Secretary to the Government of India,

To

The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Home (Education) Department.

Sir,

With reference to the correspondence ending with the Government of India (Home Department) letter no. 860-64, dated the 14th November 1906, I am directed to state for information that, though they still consider that Rs. 500 should be the maximum honorarium ordinarily admissible to officials who are selected by the Local University for the inspection of colleges, the Government of India desire to leave it entirely to the discretion of the local Government to decide in future whether sufficient reasons exist for granting a larger honorarium.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Off. Secretary to the Govt. of India.

 the disposal of the university, the selection of persons to serve on university commissions and the de-general orders of Govt:, rest with the Syndicate: the likelihood therefore of this relaxation of Govt: of India's control being brought to the knowledge of the Syndicate ^{would} be to place before that body a temptation to offer unduly liberal scales of remuneration, and if they ever begin doing like this, it may be awkward for the Govt: to interfere with their discretion. In view of India's state: that they still consider the present maximum of Rs 500 ordinarily sufficient, their present letter can only be construed ^{construed} as a measure of decentralisation to be availed ^{of} only in exceptional ^{cases} if and

The Govt. of India's opinion about the advisability of paying more than Rs 500 to an officer for inspection work remains unchanged.

The only alteration now brought about by the current letter is the substitution of the authority of the local Govt, instead of the Govt. of India for sanctioning higher rates of remuneration in exceptional cases. This latter is a matter with which the University is not concerned. In any case they have to apply to the local Govt. if higher remuneration is proposed. There is no change so far as the University is concerned. Draft 'recording' the current is for approval. It may be sent to Govt. for perusal.
