FORT ST. GEORGE,

Dated the 15th of April 1918.

From

THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL, MADRAS,

To

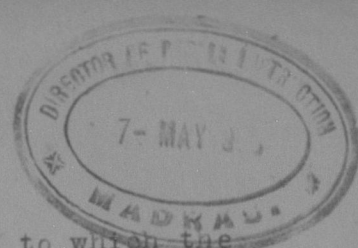

CHIEF
THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

Financial Department.

SIR,

I have the honour to invite a reference to G.O. 927, Financial, dated the 20th September 1900 empowering the Director of Public Instruction to sanction within Budget Provision, the employment of temporary attenders for the offices of Inspecting officers and to state that the Director of Public Instruction has been sanctioning year after year (since 1915-16) the employment of a temporary attender for 3 months on Rs 20/- for the Office of the Inspector of European and Training Schools, Madras, with reference to the delegation referred to above.

2. The G.O. No. 333, Financial, dated the 2nd August 1910 requires however that when a temporary addition is made to an existing establishment, the pay of the additional appointment should ordinarily be the pay of the lowest lowest appointment or grade in the establishment to which the extra appointment is to be added, which deals with the work analogous to the duties to be performed. The pay of an attender in the department ranges from Rs 9 to 12 but the special reason for granting the attender in question a higher rate of pay i.e. Rs 20/- per mensem is stated to be the (marginally noted) extraordinary

1. Preparation of certificates.
 2. -do- Nominal lists of candidates.
 3. Scrutiny of applications.
- work required to be performed by him in connection with the

Preliminary Examination for Teachers' Certificates. ~~As per from~~

3. ~~As per from~~ the question that the nature of the work (especially item 3) required to be done falls within the ordinary scope of duties of a clerk and not an attender, I would respectfully point out that there is nothing in the delegation to show that the Director of Public Instruction is competent to sanction to the temporary attenders a higher rate of pay than is permissible under G.O. No. 333, Financial, dated the 2nd August 1910 quoted in para 2. I venture to think, therefore, that the delegation accorded to the Director of Public Instruction, carries with it also the restriction imposed ⁱⁿ with the above G.O., and that it is not open to the Director of Public Instruction to sanction an attender on a higher rate for doing clerical duties, and that, if in any case it is required to sanction a higher rate of pay for the attenders for special reasons, the sanction of ^{the} Government should be obtained.

4. I have the honour, therefore, to enquire whether any limit of pay has been intended to be observed upto which the Director of Public Instruction can sanction the entertainment of temporary attenders; if this has not been done already, I would request that such ^a limit, as Government thinks fit, may be fixed for the guidance of the audit office.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Deputy Accountant-General.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
HOME (EDUCATION) Department.

Sir,

With reference to your Endorsement No. 1109 A-1, dated 4th May 1918 (herewith returned) referring for remarks the letter from the Accountant General, No. Kis. P.A-3-655 dated 15th April 1918, I have the honour to state as follows:-

(1) It was found necessary to appoint an attender on Rs20 per mensem for the office of the Inspector of European and Training schools to cope with special work requiring careful attention.

(2) The Accountant General's statement that the pay of an attender in the Department ranges from Rs9 to Rs12 is incorrect as there are attenders on Rs20 per mensem

in

in the Presidency College, Madras, on Rs15-1-20 in the Oriental manuscripts Library and one on Rs15 per mensem in the office of the Registrar of Books, Madras.

(3) The Accountant General requested me in 1909 to obtain ~~your~~ sanction for the appointment of an attender on Rs15 per mensem sanctioned by me temporarily for this same office in 1908 and subsequently accepted my explanation for the appointment made and withdrew his objection.

2. Copies of the correspondence between the Director and the Accountant General referred to in para 1(3) supra are also herewith enclosed.

Md.I. 1/6

From the Director of Public Instruction Ref. on C.No.847 of 1909, dated 25th March 1909, to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department, through the Accountant General.

" The Inspector of European and Training Schools reported in October last that the work of his office relating to the history of ex-students had fallen considerably into arrears and that the papers in connection with it were all important as they dealt with those who had left the Department since 1892, without fulfilling the terms of their agreement by serving as teachers for the full period of three years, and he requested that as the existing staff could not cope with the work, sanction might be accorded for the employment of a temporary clerk on Rs.20 per mensem for four months from 15th November 1908. I was convinced of the necessity for temporary help but as I thought that a clerk on Rs.20 was not necessary, I sanctioned for four months an attender on Rs.15 per mensem able to do the work as asked for by the Inspector, under the power delegated to me by G.O. No. 927 Financial dated 20th September 1900.

The Accountant-General objects to this course and considers that the sanction of Government is necessary for the employment of an attender on a pay of Rs.15 per mensem which, he says, was equal to that of a clerk and that the delegation of power to the Director to sanction the employment of temporary attenders does not authorise sanction being accorded to their employment on a higher rate of pay than what is sanctioned for permanent attenders in the Educational Department. With regard to the Accountant-General's objections, I beg however to point out that G.O. No.927 Financial dated 20th September 1900 does not fix any limit as to the pay that may be allowed to temporary attenders, that the minimum pay of clerks in this Department so far as the city of Madras is concerned has now been raised to Rs.20, and that there are permanent attenders in the Presidency and Medical Colleges who draw more than Rs.15 per mensem, four on Rs.20 each and one on Rs.18.

If in the light of the above facts the Accountant-General's view is accepted as correct, I request that the necessary sanction may be accorded for the entertainment of a temporary attender on Rs.15 per mensem in the office of the Inspector of ~~European~~ - European and Training Schools for four months from the 15th November 1908, the charge being met from the lump provision sanctioned for temporary establishment in the Educational Budget for the - current year".

From the Chief Superintendent, Office of the Accountant-General, Madras, No.P.A. 21/29/H dated 7th April 1909.

"I have the honour to return herewith your references on current No. 347/09 dated 25th March 1909, and to state that in the circumstances explained therein your sanction to the entertainment of an attender on Rs.15/- per mensem in the Office of the Inspector of European and Training Schools will be accepted as sufficient, and final, and the objection raised by this office withdrawn".

Memo. No. 1452A-1 dated 26.6.18

In his letter No. 4262 dated the 1st Jun 1918, the Director explains the circumstances in which he has been according sanction to the employment of a temporary attender on Rs.20/- per mensem for a period of 3 months in each year in the office of the Inspector of European and Training Schools. It is however observed that, subsequent to the correspondence with the A.G. referred to by the Director, the Government specifically ruled in G.O. No.333 Finl., dated the 2nd August 1910 that, in the case of temporary additions to existing establishments, the pay of the additional appointment should ordinarily be that of the lowest appointment or grade in the establishment to which the extra appointment is added and that special reasons should be given for proposing any rate of pay higher than that of the lowest appointment or grade. In view of the above orders, it appears desirable to fix a limit as to the ^{maximum} pay to be allowed to the temporary attenders sanctioned by the Director under the powers delegated to him in G.O. No.927 Finl., dated the 20th Sept. 1900. The Director is requested to submit his recommendation on the point.

2. The duty entrusted to the temporary hand annually employed in the office of the Inspector of European and Training Schools appears to ^{resemble more} ~~be more~~ those of a clerk than ~~those~~ of an attender and it would, therefore seem appropriate that any temporary addition necessary should be made to the clerical establishment of that office. The Director is requested to submit his views on the above suggestion and, if he agrees, to state what pay should be allowed to the temporary clerk and for what period he ^{services} would be ^{required} ~~advised~~ in a year. 28.6.18

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

HOME (EDUCATION) Department.

Sir,

With reference to para 1 of Memorandum No. 1452 A-1 Home (Education) dated 26th June 1918, I have the honour to state that the attenders employed in the inspection branch receive only Rs. 10 but that there are two laboratory attenders on Rs. 20 per mensem each in the Presidency College and one attender on Rs. 15 per mensem in each of the Kumbakonam and Rajahmundry Arts Colleges. I therefore recommend that Rs. 20 may be fixed as the maximum limit of pay to be allowed to the temporary attenders sanctioned by the Director.

2. As regards the second paragraph of the Memorandum I consulted the Inspector of European and Training Schools who reports that the temporary hand is required in connection with the Training School Leaving Certificate Examination work which begins in December and goes on systematically till the end of May and that a Clerk would be more suitable than an attender. I therefore suggest that the appointment may be one of a temporary clerk on Rs.20 for six months.

The remarks of the Home Dept. may first be invited on the proposal of the Asst. Genl. to fix a limit of pay up to which the D.P.S. can sanction temporary attenders for the offices of the Inspecting officers under the delegation sanctioned in S.O. 927 Dnl. 820-9-0. Please see the Director's remarks on pages 4 and 5 of C.F. In support of his action, he refers to the correspondence on the subject with the A.G. in 1909 vide copy on pages 6 and 7 of C.F. It is however observed that, subsequent to this correspondence, the Govt. specifically laid down in 1910 that in the case of temporary additions to the existing establishment, the pay of the additional appointment must should ordinarily be the pay of the lowest appointment or grade in the establishment to which the extra appointment is to be added and that special reasons should be given for proposing any rate of pay higher than that of the lowest appointment or grade. The question now for consideration is whether the duties required of the temporary ^{hand are properly those of a clerk or} ~~attender~~ are such as to justify his being paid Rs.20 per mensem. It is submitted that the duties entrusted to him ^{do not} appear to be ~~purely mechanical~~ and the A.G.'s view that the duties are similar to those of a clerk appears to be correct. If an additional temporary clerk is required, the Director should come up to Government for sanction. If, however, the services of an attender will suffice for the extra work to be done in the office, his pay should be fixed with reference to the pay of permanent attenders serving in Inspectors' offices. There is at present one attender in the office of the Inspector of European and Training Schools and his pay is Rs.10 per mensem. The pay of the temporary attender, if one is engaged, should not exceed this sum. There can be no proper comparison between the duties of an attender in an Inspector's office and those of an attender in an Arts College like the Presidency College where he has probably laboratory work.
