From

Sir,

With reference to your letter no. 3043, dated the 12th September 1918, I am directed to invite attention to the revised rules relating to State technical scholarships which were circulated with this Department letter no. 175, dated the 18th March 1918 and from which it will be seen that the award of these scholarships now rests with various local Governments and Administrations and that Coorg has been excluded from the scope of the revised scheme.

2. I am to add, however, that if at any time a suitable candidate from Coorg is forthcoming it will be open to the Government of Madras to consider him as eligible for one of their scholarships.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,
