My dear Richards,

Your D.O. 2894 F/17-1, dated 20th December 1917 about the Farm Arithmetic. I am trying to extract material for it from various members of the staff. I hope to get it in shape before long.

Yours sincerely,

I have collected the materials for the booklet on farm arithmetic, but cannot find time to deal with them. I think that the matter should be discussed at the conference between Agricultural and Educational officers which is to come off some time soon. I presume you will see this soon. I am

 In the notes to go. No 1469 Rev. dated the 24th May 1917, it has been considered desirable to publish a booklet in this Period similar to the Roadway publication "Farm Arithmetic". Presumably the Committee appointed in go. (W) No 1300 Home (Edn), dated the 2nd October 1918, should consider the lines on which it should be prepared. A draft order is submitted for approval.
