In G.O.No.362, Public, dated the 26th April 1918, Government have directed that men rendered meritorious active service in war should be given preferential treatment in the matter of appointments to the public service. Through the Officer Commanding Troops,

Hospital Ship "Madras".

Sir,

As I hear that a new post of a storekeeper on Rs. 50/- has been sanctioned by Government for General Hospital, Madras, I beg to approach you with the prayer that I may be appointed for the same.

I am a permanent clerk on the establishment of the General Hospital, Madras and was working as such till the 26th June 1915 when my services lent to the Hospital Ship "Madras". I am now working as a Head Clerk in the Hospital Ship "Madras" on a salary of Rs. 70/- per mensem and the enclosed copy of recommendation will bear testimony to the manner in which I have been discharging my duties under the officers under whom I had the good fortune to serve during the last three years. I would have felt myself glad to continue in my present job were it not for the fact that certain domestic inconvenience and especially the extreme old age of my mother necessitates this change so that I may be near her during her last days.

I belong to a respectable family of Naidus.

Naidu, my grandfather having held a responsible position in the Government as a Sub-Judge.

In consideration of the work I have done at the risk of life in the interests of our benign Government, I beg that my prayer to be given the storekeeper's post under your control may be kindly granted.

I am about 25 years old and in good health and shall esteem it a great kindness should I be so fortunate as to succeed in my humble endeavours.

For this act of kindness I shall always feel grateful.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
