HOME (EDUCATION) Department.
(Through the Accountant - General).

Sir,

Mr. Vernon, the Agent to the Governor in Vizagapatam proposes to arrange for imparting instruction in the arts of mat making, basket weaving, rope making, pottery, leaf work and school gardening including coffee plantation to the pupils in the Government Elementary Schools in his agency. He has for that purpose drawn up the enclosed scheme according to which the course extends over a period of five years and is arranged in stages with reference to the difficulty of learning the arts. It is stated that the people in the agency will welcome the proposal which aims at training their boys for profitable occupations in life. The main difficulty lies however in securing suitable instructors. Mr. Vernon proposes to overcome it by getting the teachers
