Sir,

I am anxious to secure the following Government Publications on Epigraphy, as I wish to study their bearing on the Land Tenures of Southern India. I shall deem it a favour if you could direct the supply thereof to me, free of charge.

(1) The Annual Reports of the Madras Epigraphist, except for 1914--15

(2) Volumes IX, X (parts 1 to 3), XIII, XIV and XXIX of the New series of the Imperial Archaeological Sept.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Continuity the reports of the Archaeological Survey and the Epigraphical Dept. are available for sale. There seems no special reason why Mr. Lobo should get them free of charge. Further some of the Epigraphical reports are already out of stock and the effect of a continuous free supply of these publications would be to exhaust the stock of the remaining reports also necessitating their re-print.

As regards the reports included in the New Series of the Temporal Arch. Dept., Vols. IX, X & XXIX mentioned by Mr. Lobo are Madras Publications, being vols. of the South Indian Inscriptions, while Vols. XIII & XIV are vols. of the Epigraphia Indica which ^{appear} ~~is not~~ ^{have publications of the Govt of Bengal.} ~~as Madras Publications~~

~~As regards the supply of the reports~~
The free supply of the reports ^{may} ~~is~~ be refused. But it is for orders which

Home (Ed. 11)

The S. G. P. says that Nos: IX, X &

XIX of the New Series of the Imperial Arch. Dept. are in stock; he has also quoted the price at which they are sold to the Public. He regards the other publications reqd. by Mr. Dobs as has been already stated that vols: XIII & XIV of the New Imperial Series are publications of the Govt. of Bengal: their sale price is not known as they are not stocked at the Local Govt. Press. Neither does the Press stock copies of the Madras Epigraphist's annual report. In regard to the latter, whenever the S. G. P. gets a demand for copies, he detains ^{copies} ~~them~~ from the Govt. and sells them to the Public. It is not known how he comes to have copies of the report for 1913-14 above.

2 In reply to Mr. Dobs we may ~~let him~~ give him the information at 'A' & 'B' above and mention that the Epigraphical reports can also be had for purchase. As the price of the individual reports cannot be ascertained without a further refer: to the S. G. P. ^(definite) information on the point is included in the draft below.
