Adverting to G.O. No. R. 97 Home (Education) dated 29th April 1918 sanctioning temporary exemption from examination rules for a period of 6 months from 4th February 1918 to -- P. Anjaneyalu 2nd clerk on Rs. 40 in the office of the Assistant Registrar of Co-operative Societies, Cocanada, I have the honour to state that the Assistant Registrar now reports that the clerk is "extremely useful" as well as "energetic and enthusiastic" and strongly recommends his permanent exemption.

In

In a similar case in the Anantapur Section permanent exemption was accorded by Government in their order No. 789 Home (Education) dated 18th June 1918. As the Government are aware the work in this department requires qualifications a little different from ordinary Government work, and it is also a matter of general experience that boys who have not been able able to carry their education beyond a low standard do often later on develop remarkable ability. My Assistant (Mr. K. Nagdewara Rao) is an experienced and sensible officer and I think it is safe to infer that this is such a case.

I request therefore that Government may be pleased to exempt this clerk permanently from the provisions of article 1 of the Public Service Notification, so long as he serves in the Co-operative Department.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

For Registrar.

Re. 2199/B, from the Regt. of Co-operative Societies, R. Re. 2642/18, d/18.10.18

Subject: - Exemption from exam. rules.

P. Angamayalwan whose behalf the present application is made was temporarily exempted from the provisions of Art. 1 of the P.S.

Notif. in view to his employment as a clerk on Rs 40 p.m. in the office of the Asst. Regt. of Co-operative

Societies - Vide No. 97(R) Ed., d/29

April 1918. The present recommendation is for his permanent exemption

"so long as he serves in the Co-operative Dept.". It is not however clear from the current letter whether the permanent exemption is sought in respect of the clerical post or in respect of any post in the Co-operative Dept. without limit of pay.

On Rs 40 p.m. In the case disposed of in No. 789 Ed., d/18th June

1918 the exemption was restricted to a specified app't, that of the

an Asst. of Co-operative Societies on Rs 30-2-40 p.m. It may be useful

(make a similar) to stipulation in this case also. Rev.

may first be consulted on the point.

① In fo. No. 97 Home (Edul)
29.4.18 P. Anjaneyulu was exempted from the examination rules for a period of 6 months for holding the post of a clerk on Rs 40 p.m. in the Cooperative deptt. The Registrar now asks for his permanent exemption 'so long as he serves in the Cooperative deptt.' It is not clear whether the Registrar intends that the exemption should cover the man's appointment only to a clerk's post on Rs 40 in the Cooperative deptt.
or to any appointment in the deptt.

2. Under the proposals for the reorganisation of the department separately under consideration the clerks and inspectors above Rs 30 in the dept. will be borne in one cadre and designated 'inspectors' so as to allow of interchange between the two appointments. Further, the clerk in question has had experience both as a clerk and as an inspector and it is possible that at any time he may be posted to do the duties of an inspector. It is therefore subd. that the exemption may in these circumstances hold good generally to appointments in the Cooperative Dept.

3. In regard to the pay up to which the exemption should be allowed, it is subd. that the pay of the lowest grade of inspectors in accordance with the proposals under consideration will be Rs 30-2-40. If Anjaneyulu be now granted Rs 40 he will probably draw that amount in the above grade. Home (Edu) may therefore be informed that the exemption <sup>may</sup> be restricted to appointments in the Cooperative Dept. on a pay not exceeding Rs 40.

Let 1.11.18. Re 1.11.18. W.F. 5/11. I think it is fairly clear that the Registrar only wants the clerk exempted <sup>up to</sup> Rs 40 - In the Anantapur case quoted by L the clerk was only exempted up to Rs 40.
