From (Name) the Hon'ble Mr. H. S. Duncan, M.A.,

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

HOME (EDUCATION) Department.

Sir, Through the Accountant-General, Madras/.

In their order No.415 Home (Education), dated 27th March 1918 Government were pleased to sanction the payment, as a special case, of a personal allowance of Rs.25 per mensem to Miss Gunther, Assistant Professor, Queen Mary's College for women, Madras, with effect from 1st July 1917. Miss Gunther now reports that this allowance was, under Article 61 of the Civil Service Regulations, reduced to Rs.15 a month from 1st July 1918, the date of her drawing the first increment of Rs.10 in her grade, viz., Rs.225-10-275 and she requests that the personal allowance of Rs.25 granted to her may be continued so long as she holds the present post irrespective of the increments that she might be drawing from year to year until the maximum of the grade was reached.

I support Miss Gunther's request as it will be observed from the concluding portion of Mr. Stone's letter Cl. No.7 dated 4th February 1918 that it was his intention that Miss Gunther should be entitled, so long as she held the present post, to draw, with the help of the personal allowance, a salary of Rs.250-10-300. Mr. Stone has also left a note indicating that this was clearly his intention.

therefore I have the honour to recommend that Government will be pleased to declare that the personal allowance of Rs.25 per mensem sanctioned on behalf of Miss Gunther is special and will not be subject to the restriction laid down in Article 61 of the Civil Service Regulations.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

G. S. Srinivasan

For the A.S.

Please see the A.S. notes and the C.S. notes on pages 2 & 4 of note of 15. Home (Ed). 27.8.18. Financial was offered to the grant of the personal allowance of Rs 25 to Miss Gunther. But in reference to H.E.'s wishes the H.M. (Ind) agrees to the grant of the personal allowance (note on page 5 of notes the above go). The D.P.I. goes a step further and wants the personal allowance not to be reduced to the extent of increments under Art 61.C.S.R. I submitted that the grant of the personal allowance was itself a concession and there are no special reasons for a departure from the rule in Art 61.C.S.R.

7th 5/11/18

I do not think financial really intended the allowance should agree to the proposal to continue when he first proposed it. It is an allowance for looking after the girl.
