To,

His Excellency the Right Hon'ble
John Baron Pentland of Lyth P.C., G.C.I.E., G.C.S.I.
Governor of Madras.

May it please Your Excellency.

The humble petition of Hameed-un-nisa Begum, 74, Wallajah Road, Mount Road, Madras.

That your Excellency's humble petitioner is the daughter of the late Honorary Captain Osman Khan, Subadar Major, Sindar Bahadur, for many years native A.D.C. to the Governors of Madras.

cf. Post card at p.
11 infra.

2. That your petitioner had applied on the 6th April 18 to your Excellency for a post in the police Department for her son Mir Abdullah Hussain, which application your Excellency was pleased to forward to the Inspector General of Police. But unfortunately the Inspector General was unable to take my son in his department, as my son had not appeared for the Secondary School Leaving Certificate Examination.

3. That the petitioner now begs to request your Excellency to be pleased to grant my son, Mir Abdullah Hussain, general exemption from appearing for the required examination, to enable him to join any department in the Govt. Service - The petitioner's son had studied almost for the whole year in the sixth form, but was prevented from attending the Examination as he was just then suffering from chicken pox.

4. That the petitioner's son has now undergone training as a Private in the 1st Madras Infantry I.D.F.

3/4
5. That the petitioner ³begs to inform your Excellency ⁴that since the death of her husband, Mir Hussim Sahib, who was an Inspector of Police, she has been maintaining herself and her children with much difficulty. She now finds it impossible to pull on and if her son gets an employment somewhere it will greatly relieve her.

6. That the petitioner sanguinely hopes that Your Excellency will be pleased to consider her case sympathetically, considering the loyal services rendered by her father, the late Captain Osman Khan, Copies of whose record of services and other letters are herewith enclosed.

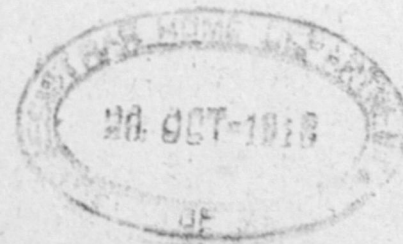

7. The petitioner hopes to receive a favourable reply from your Excellency, for which act of kindness the petitioner as in duty bound shall ever pray.

Through,

We regret to record the death from disease on Sunday [unclear] of that fine old soldier Subadar Major Sirdar Bahadur Osman Khan, for many years native A.D.C. to the Governors of Madras. The Sirdar Bahadur entered Her Majesty's Service as a Private in the 6th Cavalry on the 8th December, 1840, and retired on a well-earned pension on the 8th December, 1891, after a long and meritorious career of 51 years. He saw plenty of fighting in the early portion of his soldiering days.
He served in the Saugor and Nerbudda territories in 1842-43 and again from November, 1857, to February, 1858. He was present at the affairs of Sehora, Deebriah, Bustar and Hurryah and the battles of Tulseepore and the reduction of Bundelcund, for which he received the Mutiny medal and clasp. He was transferred to the 17th Guard in 1861 and on the 12th November, 1869, H.E. ed Native A.D.C. to the Governor of Madras, a he filled with credit for 22 years. During his cy of this post he was fortunate enough to attract the tention of His Royal Highness the Prince of Major Bertie Hobart, Military Secretary.
Buckingham was desired to express to faction at the duties he performed Prince of Wales. He was selected Duke of Buckingham and his Staff.
Successive Governors from placed on record their vice rendered by the whom he came in character. He was admitted to the Order of the British India on the 5th June, 1868, and the latest honour conferred on him was so recent as the 8th March last, when he was given the rank of Honorary Captain in the British Army. He was 69 years of age at the time of his death, and until recently carried his age well. But about a year ago he was attacked by the disease to which he eventually succumbed. The news of his death will, we feel sure, be received with regret by the members of His Excellency's staff and by the large circle of acquaintances with whom his duties at the Government House brought him into contact.

H.R.H. THE PRINCE OF WALES APPRECIATION.

21st December 1875.

I am desired by the Duke of Buckingham to tell you that His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales was graciously pleased to take special notice of you and to express His Royal Highness' satisfaction at the duties you performed in attendance on him, and at the zeal and fidelity His Royal Highness had heard you had shown in the performance of your duties. I am sure to me to be the channel for commendation to you.
