It is not clear for what

Home (Edn) Sept

As regards (a)

A list of the training schools for masters and mistresses in the Presidency is given in Supplemental Statistics Nos 45 and 46 (pages 40-43) of Vol II of the Public Instruction Report for 1917-18. The report has not yet been published but will be placed on F. T. in due course. It is for consideration whether the Add Member may be referred to the report which will in due course be published or whether an extract giving the name of each institution and the district in which it is located may be placed on the Table.

2. As regards (b) & (c)

It is not clear for what year the particulars mentioned are required. Presumably the Add Member requires information for the current official year 1918-19. Attention is directed to the statement on page 4 of S.O. No 433 Home (Edn) 83-4-17. As a number of new training institutions have since been opened, the figures contained in the statement can hardly be taken as correctly representing the nature of the facilities for training now provided. The figures for 1917-18 and 1918-19

We may do this without referring to the year of the report. The Add Member has not referred to any year and we need not specify any. CR which gives particulars for the triennium ending 1916-17

are not available in the office and it is doubtful whether they can be obtained in time for the morning meeting of the Council. It is for consideration whether the Addl Member may be informed that the Govt are not in possession of the ^{information} ~~latest figures~~ ~~on the subject~~.

Mr. Krishna Rao spoke some on this subject. His previous is this. While the accident is limited, several persons - some of these officers - were admitted whilst bona fide teachers were denied admission. I fail however to see how any answer to the question will help.
