The Hon'ble Yakub Hasan Sahib Bahadur.

To recommend the part of Professor for the Presidency College.

Q. 114. Will the Government be pleased to appoint Professors of Arabic opened at the Presidency College and Persian in the Presidency College are left for place of Mr. Naimur Rahman?

No Camp - 13 Q 17-9-17 extracted

It is for consideration moreover whether it would be necessary after the establishment of the College to maintain the Professorship of Arabic in the Presidency College and the assistant's post for Persian the Professor of Arabic has only one post and it has not been considered necessary to fill the post of Persian assistant at all. The new College will at first be of the Second grade and it is at the intermediate stage that Persian may be expected to begin in the College Study of Arabic and Persian rather than for the B.A. course with view to which the posts of in the Presidency College were sanctioned. There is reason to think therefore that they would be useful in the Ottoman College and their transfer to it would be equivalent to a contribution of nearly Rs. 20 a month.

The reasons that led the D.P.O. to recommend the transfer of the post of Professor of Arabic Sanctioned for the Presidency College to the new College for Muhammadans opened at the Madrasa-1-Azam are set forth in para 9 of his letter No Camp-13 & 17-9-17 extracted below.

- "It is for consideration moreover
- " whether it would be necessary after the
 - " establishment of the College to maintain
 - " the Professorship of Arabic in the Presidency
 - " College and the assistant's post for Persian
 - " The Professor of Arabic has only one pupil

 Proposed Muhammadania
 College
 X. College for Muhammadans proposed to be opened in Madras.

The above ^{note was} ~~written~~ written in connection with the proposal to open an Osmania College for Muhammadans in Madras partly out of private contributions and partly out of Govt grant. The attempt to open this college failed and the Govt then decided to open ^{college classes} ~~colleges~~ for Muhammadans in connection with the Madras. L. A. Ram.

The post of Professor of Arabic in the Presidency College has been transferred to the Madras. L. A. Ram

2. From the above notes, it will be observed that the transfer of the post from the Presidency College was recommended only when it was found to serve no useful purpose there. In the circumstances, there does not seem to be any necessity to sanction a new post of Arabic ^{Professorship} in the Presidency College now.

3. The following draft reply is submitted for approval

"The Govt are advised that ^{in view} of the paucity of students studying Persian and Arabic, there is no need for such posts at present in the Presidency College."

In view of previous proceedings, I think we may add to the above draft.
