111 Q.—Is it a fact that the Director of Public Instruction applied in 1916 to the University of Madras for the further affiliation of the Presidency College in Branch IX—Arabic language and literature of the B. A. (Honours) course but subsequently he withdrew the application? Will the Government be pleased to state whether the non-provision of sufficient staff was the principal reason for the withdrawal of the said application?

Home (Ed.)

The facts are as stated in the first part of the question. Vide notes at pp 9 & 10 of Sec. No. 452 Ed. (S. D.) 26th March 1917. The season assigned for the admission of the application is also partly true—vide D. P. S. w. of the above Sec. But it seems less equally true. There is no sufficient staff for affiliation Branch IX—Arabic language and literature of the B. A. (Honours) course.
