Yes but It seems to me it would almost be better to charge a spl price (reduced) to public institutions like Societies, Academies & which apply for the concession. As the work is going to be spread over a number of years, Societies doing really useful work will be glad to pay a small price.

(Continuation of routine notes.)

The A. A. S. has submitted a revised list of distribution of copies of texts of inscriptions, in which he has included the name of the Telugu manuscript library, Pittapur and the question of general distribution ^{has been} separately noted on. The Secretary of the library may in the mean- while be informed that his application will be taken into consideration when orders are passed on the general distribution of copies of the texts. A draft order is submitted.
