From

UDYAVAR ANANDA RAU,

Superintendent, Bank of Madras,

Sir,

B a n g a l o r e.

I intend setting apart Rs 400/- invested by me in the 5th FIRST INDIAN WAR LOAN BONDS for awarding two prizes in memory of my father DASAPPA and mother DEVAMMA as detailed below in the Government College, Mangalore under the Charitable Endowment Act of 1890.

SCHEME:-

That the annual interest of Rs 22/- accruing on these Bonds be allotted towards awarding the prizes as under:-

One prize of the value of Rs 11/- to a poor Saraswat student of the 6th Form who maintains the best character and this prize be named the "U.DASAPPA PRIZE"

One prize of the value of Rs 11/- to a poor Saraswat student of the 5th Form who maintains the best character and the prize be named the "U.DEVAMMA PRIZE"

That the recipients of these prizes, be scholarship holders from the "SARASWAT POOR STUDENTS FUND" in the Government College, Mangalore, failing these to the other students of the same community.

That the prize money thus awarded be spent for buying the class books of the respective classes, or such books as may be useful to the students.

That the prize be awarded at the discretion of the Principal who is also the President of the "SARASWAT POOR STUDENTS FUND"

Falling Saraswat students, let the prizes be awarded to other students irrespective of caste, who maintain the best character in the classes mentioned, at the discretion of the Principal.

When the term of the above Bond expires, the aforesaid amount is to be re-invested in Government Bonds to carry out the above object.

If the scheme detailed above meets with your approval, on the receipt of your orders I will arrange with the Bank of Madras, Madras to assign the above "War Bonds" in your favour or in favour of the Official whom you name.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

U. Ananda Rao
