In G.O. No. 170 Nams (Eds)

At 12th Feb. 1918 the minimum pay of trained teachers in public elementary schools has been raised to Rs 12 p.m.

Of the two teachers <sup>Sanjivani</sup> who continued employed <sup>ment</sup> is now asked for, one is on Rs 10, having been engaged on that rate long prior to the date of the above G.O. If she is a trained mistress, it would obviously be unfair to let her continue on Rs 10 only. Before orders issue on the case the Director may be requested w/o

① to state whether the teacher on Rs 10 in this particular case is a trained mistress, and, if so, whether it is not necessary to admit her to the benefit of the <sup>letter</sup> enhanced rate of Rs 12.

② to furnish <sup>letter</sup> information in respect of future applications for retention of teachers <sup>also</sup> similarly circumstanced in other schools.
