No. 456-16th April 1918. Loan of Mr. Chatterton's services to Mysore Darbar.

Government of India sanction extension of his services with Mysore Darbar from 2nd January 1918 and, as special case, waive application of Article 750, Civil Service Regulations, and permit him while still in employ of Darbar, to retire from British Service from date he completes 30 years' service.

As regards emoluments, (1) while serving on Indian Commission, Mr. Chatterton will draw sanctioned emoluments as Member of Commission and Mysore Darbar will, as previously agreed, contribute Rs. 1,000/- a month towards his emoluments. (2) For period from date of reversion to Mysore State service from Commission (about end of May) to date of retirement, Government of India agree to salary of Rs. 2,500/- a month with rates of travelling allowances, as proposed.

Government of India regret they are unable to agree to his receiving during this period a percentage of profits as proposed such a concession not being recognised by foreign service rules. He may, however, as before be permitted to draw Exchange Compensation Allowance at current rates. (3) After date of retirement Mr. Chatterton may arrange his own terms with Darbar, Government of India having no further concern with his emoluments.

Sd. J.B. Wood,
Secretary to the Government of India.

Attested.
