Station Madras, Dated the 21-5-1918

From (Name) The Hon'ble Mr. J.H. Stone, M.A., F.R.H.S., C.I.E.,

(Designation) Director of Public Instruction.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Home (Education) Department.

Sir,

The sanction accorded in G.O.No.536 Home (Education) dated 26-4-17 to the grant of the personal allowance of Rs.70 per mensem to Miss Winifred Thompson, Headmistress, Government Girls' School, Madura, expires by the 30th May 1918. As Miss Thompson, who holds no substantial appointment in the department, has left the school owing mainly to the difficulty of securing accommodation at Madura, I have appointed Miss J. Fernandez, an anglo Indian who was till recently acting as first assistant in the Government Girls' High school, Cannanore, on a salary of Rs.100 per mensem as Headmistress of the Government Girls' School, Madura, as a temporary measure, on a salary of Rs.40/- plus a personal allowance of Rs.70 per

The allowance sanctioned in G.O., No. 1301, Home (Edn) dated 5th December 1916 was special to Miss Thompson - Vide Sir Alexander Cardew's note at p. 5 of the notes to the G.O. In the circumstances stated the Director's proposal to continue the allowance till 1st June 1919 and make it payable to any Anglo-Indian Lady who occupies the post of headmistress of the school may be approved. Though there is provision in the budget, the proposal being to convert an allowance specially granted to a particular individual into one of 'general' applicability, the draft would seem to require the acceptance of Financial.

The D.P.I.'s proposal is that the Headmistress of the Govt. Girls' School, Madura, should be allowed to draw a personal allowance of Rs. 70 so long as an ~~Anglo-Indian~~ ^{Anglo-Indian} lady is the headmistress. The allowance ~~was~~ sanctioned in G.O., No. 1301 Home (Edn.) dated 5th December 1916, as a special case, to Miss Thompson who was then headmistress. The H.M. (Finl.) then noted as follows:--

"If it is necessary as a special case to pay this lady (Miss Thompson) more in order to retain her services I have no objection to the Edl. dept.'s raising her personal allowance from Rs. 50 to Rs. 70 but I do not wish to create a precedent for the grant of house-rent in Madura"

This note was written with reference to the D.P.'s recommendation to give the lady a house-rent allowance of Rs. 20 as she threatened to leave the service, if this allowance was not granted. In spite of the increased personal allowance, she first took leave and then resigned. In the leave vacancy Mrs. Durnhill was appointed by the D.P.I. on the same rate of pay, without the sanction of Govt. (sanction was applied for only for exemption from examination rules). She stayed for a day only and now Miss Fernandez who drew acting Rs. 100 in the Cannanore Girls' School as 1st Asst., now occupies the post. The D.P.I. recommends the same rate of pay and allowances for this lady as for Miss Thompson, viz., Rs. 40 pay + Rs. 70 personal allowance. As the lady was drawing Rs. 100 as 1st Asst. it seems reasonable to give her Rs. 110 as headmistress. But it does not seem necessary to stereotype this allowance as a European or Anglo-Indian allowance available to everyone of this race who occupies the post of headmistress. Orders are solicited

I agree that it is reasonable to pay Mrs. Fernandez as proposed, & there is no objection to issue of an order sanctioning an agreeable pay & allowances of Rs. 110.

It is a clumsy arrangement to attach a personal allowance of 175 Rs. to the pay of a post when held by an Anglo-Indian & I don't think it is a perfect one.

The proposal of the D-P.I is to sanction the personal allowance of Rs. 70. The pay of the appoint. viz. Rs. 40 has already been sanctioned by Govt. and the new addition to it to be sanctioned is the personal allowance. The aggregate of the pay + personal allowance is Rs. 110; and there is therefore no difference between the original draft & the altered. By mentioning only the personal allowance in the draft, it was thought that the order might conform to the proposal submitted by the D-P.I for sanction. For no. 1307 of 5.12.16 and no. 586 of 26.4.17, which are the previous orders on the subject, mention only the personal allowance & the present draft only sanctions the continuance of that allowance. 14.6.18
