In G.O. No 1049-50 of 14.8.17 Mr. Dakshinamurti was granted a Special Scholarship of Rs 150 for one year to enable him to complete his studies at the Glasgow Uni. Bench. But he did not avail himself of the Scholarship last year on account of ill health. He however requested that he might be permitted to avail himself of it during 1918. In G.O. No 216 R of 20.9.17 he was told that the question of regrant of the Scholarship in 1918 would be considered if he renewed his request early in April 1918. He has accordingly applied for the renewal of the Scholarship. When the Secretary saw him last year he was drifting into consumption. Vide page 6 of G.O. 216 R of 20.9.17.

it is at least open to doubt whether any scholarship would have been awarded. He "failed twice badly" in his mathematics for the B.E. course, he worked at the Technical College in "unsatisfactory" & the Local Ad-

that if he returned to the University for another year "he would not be strong enough to pass the Final

2. Surely in these circumstances it would be waste of money to renew

2. It is possible that as remarked by the Chief Secretary H. E. may have decided otherwise if the information now available was before H. E. then.

But a scholarship having been sanctioned, the applicant would naturally expect its renewal & in consequence therefore would not have attempted to do anything in India itself this year.

3. If it be decided not to award the scholarship, I think that we should clearly intimate to the applicant that the report of his progress is indifferent and the scholarship is withheld because the Government believe that a further course of study in Scotland will not benefit him.

I agree that Rule 3 does not apply in this case & it does not appear that Home Dept has infringed any actual rule of business, but it would have been a better exercise of discretion to circ. the file to me, in view of the ^{the} Final objection.

On the merits I should certainly have deprecated spending public money on a candidate who has twice failed badly in the First Science Exam for the B.Sc. & of whom it is reported that he will not be strong enough to pass the Final Exam for the degree. As the G.O. has already issued, it cannot now be withdrawn, but I do ask that a distinct warning should be given to the candidate that the special scholarship is for one year only & that he must not count on any extension.
