Honourable

Your permission

I have herewith submitted a few papers (in Original), the perusal of which will clearly show how unfairly and unjustly I have been treated how I was not given an opportunity to defend myself and how I was brought to trouble by a conspiracy

The paper marked A was the letter of the Rev: Dr. Perkins. A. M. missionary Dindigul. It was handed over to me by the Hon'ble Mr. Pittendigh.
Unfortunately, he was away from Madras then, with Mr. Perkins' permission, it

Letter D Inspector's reply, & my above letter, refusing to grant my reasonable request.

All these facts have been purposely suppressed in his report to the D.P.T.

Letter E The Viceroy's acknowledgment of my letter and direction to submit the same to the Local Government, forwarding the enclosure (A) only, in original.

No. F.

I have also submitted, for your kind perusal, three of the many testimonials (in original). I was favoured with, as a protest of the unfair and illegal dealings of the local officers.

If Hon'ble Mr. Stome or H.E. the Governor know the truth of the case, I shall certainly get justice from either of them.

In July 1914, I was first suspended without any formal enquiry, as a result of anonymous and pseudonymous petitions, the outcome of a conspiracy. (Vide letter B.) to ruin me.

it was afterwards submitted to H.E. the Viceroy, who after perusal, forwarded it to me by registered post to be submitted to the Local Government. Dr. Perkins was at Dindigul during the so-called enquiry.

Letter B : It was written to me by Mr. H. N. S. Jumbumatta Iyer B.A., L.T., F.Z.S., Sub-Asst. Inspector of Schools, Madurai, warning me of the conspiracy going on in the Assistant Inspector's office, &oust me from Dindigul. On his transfer to Karur, he wrote to me from that station, soon after his joining the new station.

Letter C . The office-copy of the confidential letter (in original) submitted to the Inspector, protesting respectfully against the illegal and unfair treatment accorded to me and praying him to give me an opportunity to defend me properly.

The immediate cause of my trouble was the strong prejudice of the then Asst. Inspector of Schools to whom I confidentially reported that his Head Clerk was corrupt, giving facts. This offended him so much, that he and his head-clerk tried their level best to bring me into difficulties.

He, through prejudice, misrepresentation and anonymous petitions, poisoned also the mind of the Inspector of Schools, so much so that he refused to grant me the reasonable requests, formally accorded to the most ardent or to a petty plea, as per orders of the Government on the subject. (Vide letters, C & D in original).

The witnesses on the strength of whose statements, I have now been removed from the Service, were never brought before me for cross-examination nor were their statements furnished to me, before obtaining my explanation.

The Director passed an order, removing me from the Service, only on the strength of this prejudiced and false report but has graciously been pleased to allow me in his D. No. 4601 of 7.7.14.

To be employed as a teacher in any recognized schools, under private management.

Now Sir, to disgrace a respectable man and to cast slur on his character without proper enquiry is quite unconstitutional and contrary to the British Justice and Righteousness.

As I was never given a full opportunity (as per orders of the Local Government & of the Government of India on enquiry into the conduct of the Public Servant) to clear my conduct (please vide letters C & D) and as I am very anxious that the stigma of moral depravity should be removed from me, I most humbly request your Excellency's Government to do so providing to rehabilitate me, after mature and impartial consideration of my case.

If the above prayer cannot be granted, may I most humbly request the Government

I allow me to resign my appointment at taking into your kind and sympathetic consideration the 9 years' unblemished record of service I have put in in the Education Department (both as an Inspecting Officer & Senior Master) and the large family I have to support.

may I also humbly request your Excellency's Government to be so good as to return the original papers now submitted, and to give me permission to prosecute Messrs. Hodges and Krishnamma, who have maliciously, prejudicially and illegally disgraced me before the public and to vindicate my character if my prayer meet with no success.

Thanking you in advance and begging most humbly to be excused for all my past shortcomings and failures.

I beg to remain
Honoured Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
D. D. Abraham. (B.A., 2nd)

No. 14634 from Mr. D.C. Abraham of 1.5.18

Subject. memorial requesting that he may be reinstated in the post of Sub-assistant inspector of schools held by him prior to his dismissal in 1913 or that he may be allowed to resign that appointment instead of being dismissed

Please see the office note on p. 10 of f. no. 1299 Vol. 2 of 29.11.15 which briefly sets out the previous history of the memorialist's ^{case.} No new facts have been brought forward in the present memorial. His requests that he may be reinstated in his original post (of S.A.I.) or allowed to resign is clearly inadmissible. He also applies for permission to prosecute Messrs. Hodges and Krishnamma. No such permission is necessary. He may be left to himself to take action if advised.

2. A draft order drawing the memorialist's attention to f. no. 1299 Vol. 2 of 29.11.15 and informing him that further ~~memorial~~ petitions from him on the subject will remain unnoticed is submitted for approval.
