[Subject: Reduction in the number of copies of periodicals supplied to officers under Home (Ind) Dept]

For the As

Please see items 79 to 82 on page 6 of the Home Dept have issued orders reducing the number of copies of the Journal of Indian Art and Industry by four. From a perusal of para 4 of the Dept note on pages 13 & 16 of Ldys 897, 17.9.17, it will be seen that the Govt are under an obligation to take 150 copies and that the sanction of the Govt of India has to be obtained if this number is to be reduced. ~~below the number.~~ This Govt is now subscribing for 151 copies in all and if this number is reduced by 4, the total number subscribed for will fall short of 150 by 3. Submits that this cannot be done without addressing the Govt of India in the matter. The Home (Ind) Dept may therefore be requested to reconsider the case and see whether the three copies cannot be utilised otherwise, in which case their Govt in the current file will require amendment.

For the Registrar

The D.P.D. does not entertain a very high opinion about the journal of Indian Art and Industry and has remarked that the suspension of the publication of the journal would not matter to anyone except the publishers.

(Vide note on p 14 of Lys No 1296 A Home (Edn) dated 2.12.16). Since, however, it has been decided not to reduce the number of copies of the journal subscribed for by this Govt, the Govt. of India need not be addressed now. The order in Lys No 681 Home (Edn) dated 29.5.18 may be amended accordingly.

2. A draft order is submitted for approval.
