Subject Grant of deputation allowance to Mr. H.S. Duncan during the period of his special duty in the office of the D.I. I.

Extract from the notes connected with G.O. no 888 Home (Education) & 5.7.18.

Issue

2. Urgent. Take up the question of allowance. R.R-5.7.18.

According to the principles laid down recently for the grant of deputation allowance (p. 39 notes G.O. no 513 Encl. & 20.6.18) Mr Duncan is not ordinarily eligible for an allowance as his period of special duty ^{as fixed at present} is less than three months. If he, however, satisfies Govt. that the special duty involves substantial extra expense, he may be given the allowance. It is submitted that the D.I. I. may be requested to state in the first instance to state how long the period of special duty is likely to last and whether Mr Duncan is likely to be put to extra expense owing to the special duty and, if so, to what amount.

Though it is doubtful whether Mr. Duncan will be on special duty for three months or more, he is to come up to duty to work & thus his duty will involve a change of station. CD

The fact that Mr. Drueau is who is out during the term of his special duty throws no doubt on his additional expense.

No further enquiry seems necessary. Will Council agree to an allowance of Rs 250 p.m.?

C. S. has already expressed the opinion that Mr. Drueau should get the allowance.

That is certainly my opinion,
but the general principle laid down by Govt. requires that in cases where the transfer is for less than three months "no allowance shall be given unless the officer applies for and substantiates the Govt.
that the special duty involves substantial extra expense."

In this case there has, as yet, been no such application. Govt. is therefore deterred from accepting the proposal.

In view of the fact that Mr. Duncan has had to give up the free quarters which he enjoyed at Saidapet and find accommodation in Ootacamund perhaps the Hon'ble Member (Financial) will agree that it is unnecessary to require a formal application from him.

15.7.18

I agree. There seems to be substantial ground for an allowance in the circ^s of this case.

15.7.18

A draft order is submitted for approval. It may be sent to the Finl. Dept^h for perusal.
