Departmental Test.in Police Orders and Practice.

Permanent.

Permanent.

First application for exemption from the Departmental Test.

He is at present a clerk on Rs.40 per mensem and it is proposed to promote him to Rs.50 in a vacancy. He has put in 28 years of faithful service and being 47 years of age is too old to study for the Departmental Test prescribed for clerks on Rs.50 in District Police Offices in G.O.No.9, Home (Judicial), dated the 3rd January 1918. He has a thorough knowledge of the work of almost all the branches of the District Police Office, Bellary and his work has been satisfactory throughout. He richly deserves the concession.

Name, age and educational qualifications of the candidates, for whose exemption sanction is sought.

The post in which it is proposed to employ him and the nature of the appointment, i.e., whether acting or sub. pro tem. or temporary.

The sanctioned pay of the post and the pay proposed to be given to the unpassed candidate.

The examination from which exemption is sought.

The period for which the appointment is expected to last.

The period for which sanction is now sought with dates of commencement and of termination.

Is this a first application of one for a renewal of a previous sanction? If for renewal, quote the previous order granting sanction and state for how long the candidate has already been exempted.

What steps have been taken to procure the services of a passed candidate and with what result?

Recommendation of the head of the department.

Remarks.

Application for exemption from the Examination rules of an unpassed candidate for employment in the office of the Dt. Police, Bellary.

Promotion to Rs.50
