P. S.

Copy of letter No. 2359 civil, dated 12th July 1919 from the Acting District Judge, Guntur, to the Registrar, High Court, Madras.

I have the honour to submit herewith for favourable consideration the application of Madabhushi Lakshmanacharyulu permanent clerk on Rs. 20/- of the Principal District Munsif's Court, Bapatla and temporary clerk of the Additional District Munsif's Court, Guntur on the same pay addressed to His Excellency the Governor in Council, requesting that he may be exempted from the examination rules to hold a permanent appointment on Rs. 25/- and 30/- in Government service. The applicant holds appreciative testimonials of his work and character from the several Officers under whom he served from 1913 and the Additional District Munsif in whose court he has been now working also recommends in his letter Dis. No. 496/19, dated the 7th instant, copy of which is herein enclosed, that he deserves the exemption he prays for.

Through

The Honourable the Judges of the High Court of Judicature,

M A D R A S.

Through

The District Judge,

G U N T U R.

The Additional District Munsif,

G U N T U R.

The humble representation of Madabhushi Lakshmanacharyulu, permanent clerk on Rs. 20/- of the Principal District Munsif's Court, Bapatla and Temporary Clerk on Rs. 20/- of the Additional District Munsif's Court, Guntur for exemption from the operation of article 1 of the public service notification.

Most Respectfully sheweth,

That he passed the Government Lower Secondary Examination and went up for Matriculation and Upper Secondary Examinations of the Madras University but was unfortunately plucked.

2. That he first entered in the Government Service in the Judicial Department in the year 1900 as permanent Copyist, Principal District Munsif's Court, Bapatla and was given acting as a clerk in 1909 on Rs. 15/- and confirmed as 2nd Grade Amin in the same court in 1911 and was at the same time promoted to Sub protom 1st Grade Amin on Rs. 20/- and was confirmed as Amin on Rs. 20/- in 1913 and as a clerk on Rs. 20/- in 1914.

3. That from 1910 till now he has been working as Original Suits Bench Clerk with the exception of three years during which period he worked as Original Suits Execution Clerk to the entire satisfaction of his immediate superiors.

4. That during all these 10 years of varied service he has been able to pick up a thorough knowledge in detail of all branches of civil work and that he has along been doing important branches of work which a qualified clerk is expected to do and that he is not inferior in work to the School Final Candidates who are eligible for further promotions.

5. That in conclusion, he prays that for the reasons mentioned above he may be granted exemption from the operation of Article 1 of the Public Service Notification so as to enable him to hold permanent appointment on Rs. 25 and 30 in the Government Service this being the greatest boon which could be bestowed upon him by your gracious Excellency's Government for his hard work.

He begs to remain,

Most Respected Sir,

Your honour's most obedient and humble servant,

M. Lakshmanacharyulu

3rd clerk.

Copies of testimonials.

M. Lakshmanacharyulu was a 2nd Grade Amin on Rs. 15/- in the Principal District Munsif's Court at Bapatla when I presided over that court. I tried him as Original Suits Clerk, Execution Clerk and Decree Drafting clerk and in all capacities he gave me entire satisfaction. He writes an exceedingly beautiful hand and is very obedient and well behaved. He is a reliable and intelligent clerk who deserves promotion and encouragement. I shall be glad to hear of his rising to higher posts in the service.

Sir,

In forwarding herewith for favourable consideration the application of M. Lakshmanacharlu, clerk of my Court for exemption from Examination Rules to hold the posts of Rs. 25 and 30 in the Government Judicial Department, I have the honour to state that the clerk is very intelligent, hardworking and trustworthy and I always found him to be very useful as a Bench Clerk. He is well up with all the departmental work and he is not inferior to any Matriculate or School Final candidates in the efficient discharge of his duties. I therefore have the honour to state that his case deserves special consideration for recommendation of permanent exemption from Examination Rules.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
