Note for the Registrar

^{to Govt.}
The letter requesting sanction for the exemption of Messrs. P. Anjanayalu & G. Annathanasayana Sastry from examination rules was passed by Registrar on the 12th April & despatched that very evening by post to Ootacamund. In the Gazette notification Govt.
Secretariat offices were said to commence work at Ooty on the 15th April & all communications to Govt. were therefore required to be addressed to the Nilgiris after the 12th April. A local delivery book is maintained & generally most of the letters intended for Govt. Board & the Asst. Secy. are sent when papers are not available, letters are sent by post through persons. In this instance as the letter dated 12th April could have been sent to the Fort St. George on the 13th morning only the Despatcher thought it proper to post it to Ootacamund. The entry in the Despatch book is flagged "R"

^{7.C.3059 of 12-3-4-1919}
The other letter which was not received by Govt. was sent in the same cover along with (Reply to reminder from Govt.) this office letter R. G. No. 279 of 18th April 1919. Regarding the introduction of Angkor manufacture as a cottage industry or corp. in Ramanavaram lines & posted to Govt. on 7th April 1919. Govt. order No. 1275-Vis. of 3rd July 1919 was issued on the latter subject. Although Govt. order was issued it is not known whether Govt. have been in receipt of the reply to their reminder referred to nor does the reply appear among the papers read in the G.O.

If they had received it they should have also
