Sir,

This is the humble Memorial of M.T. Manicka Mudaliar Tracer, Chingleput Division.

Your Memorialist begs to lay before you his hard and pitiable case for your kind consideration and favourable orders.

Ever since his entertainment in service in the P.W.D. which was on 4-3-10 he has been working to the entire satisfaction of his superiors so much so that he was even appointed as a --- permanent tracer. While he was taken into the service it will be evident that his claims to appointment were based on his capacity for the work and on his neatness in the execution of tracings given to him. The very same qualifications got him an acting Sub Overseer's place in this department several times and also the Second draftsman's place in the Office of the Director of Industries before his entertainment in the P. W. D. Some four years -- later, the Educational rules came into force which could not preclude persons who were already in employ without the requisite --- qualifications.

while justice will dictate only such a procedure, the orders of the superintending Engineer, Fifth Circle, confirming the memorialist as a tracer were set aside, and the memorialist was ordered to continue as a temporary Tracer until such time as he qualifies himself for the post.

Please see G.O. No. 45 Home (Eon) in which the petitioners' d. 24-2-19 ~~where the~~ man has been granted temporary exemption from the process' tests till the date of the publication of the ~~results~~ results of the examination to be held in Nov. 1919. The ^{now} petitioners ^{now} state that he finds it almost an impossible task to get through the tests & therefore prays that he may be granted permanent exemption. The J.E. & the S.E. strongly recommended the request. While recommending the case, the J.E. Chingaput Du refers to the case of C. Mogambara Mudra ^{who has been granted permanent exemption from} a proposal of G.O. No. 1500 Home (Eon) d. 26.11.18. It will be seen that the case of C. Mogambara Mudra is not on all fours with the present one. C. Mogambara Mudra ^{has} aged 50 & had put in 20 years service, while the present man is aged ^{only} 33 & has put in 9 years service. ^{the} Hence ^{the} seems ^{the} therefore no case for permanent exemption. In view of the ~~fact~~ however, of the strong recommendations made by the J.E. & the S.E. ^{his reference to the remarks at} & ~~of the note at the particular marked~~ ¹³ on page 5 of the notes with Memo No 5833 of 8.10.18, the man may perhaps be granted permission for temporary exemption for so long

A draft order is subd, as designed by the P.W.D. It may however be observed that the Says: were prepared ~~at~~ even last year to permanently exempt ~~the~~ ~~individuals~~ from the tests provided for transit - cf. A. at p. 8 of Ex. No: 229(R), d/ 26.9.18. There seems to be no particular advantage in denying the man permanent exemption but authorizing his indefinite continuance in the aptt: held by him. One thing is plain - that the man will do for the job. If so, there seems to be no objection in sanctioning a permanent exemption straight away, if P.W.D. so desire. That the post postponed held by the memorialist as a temporary one need not prevent this, for with an ex parte exemption he will have no ~~claim~~ claim for a permanent footing. ~~because~~
