Letter from J.I. Smith, Esq., I.C.S., President, District Board, Bellary,
To the Secretary to Government, Local & Municipal Department,
Dated the 15th May 1919,
C.R. No. 490.

(5) With reference to G.O. No. 16, Financial, dated 7-1-19, I have the honour to request the orders of Government as to how elementary school masters in receipt of pay not exceeding Rs. 10 per month should be classed under superior or inferior service.

2. Under Article 396 of the C.S.R. they would technically come under "inferior service" and para 1(1) of the G.O. will apply. But the Treasury Deputy Collector who was consulted, is of opinion that the general spirit of the rules is that under inferior service come those classes of servants who have to do duties involving physical labour and that the teachers of whatever grade do not fall under that class. Their functions are purely intellectual and involve nothing less than awakening of intelligence in children and as such they may be classed as superior servants. I agree with these views.

3. The minimum pay of teachers is now fixed at Rs. 12 and as such all the teachers are according to the existing rules to be deemed superior servants. Untrained teachers get Rs. 10 and under. The difference between these two sets of teachers is only in pay, their functions being the same. If the teachers drawing less than Rs. 10 are declared to be superior servants, they will be eligible to an increased rate of war allowance. This allowance has not been drawn pending the decision of this question. I solicit early orders on the subject.

Submitted that there seems no objection to treat the teachers in question as superior servants for purposes of war allowance. The Home (Edn) Dept. may, it is submitted, be consulted u.o. K.R. 20-5-19.

Submitted that Financial may be consulted u.o. as to whether untrained teachers in Govt. schools drawing Rs. 10 and less can be granted war allowance on the scale admissible to officers in the "superior" service. The minimum pay of posts in boys' and girls' schools has recently been raised to Rs. 12 and to Rs. 13 p.m., respectively. Thus all posts of teachers are classed as "superior". It does not appear that, merely because a teacher does not draw the full pay of the post, he should be treated as in inferior service.

purposes of war allowance.

2. Attention is in this connection solicited to para 2 of letter No. 448, dated 11-8-16 in which this Govt. asked the Govt. of India for greater discretion in the matter of determining whether a particular service should be classed as superior or inferior. In reply the Govt. of India have promised to issue amendments to article 396 C.S.R. and Appendix 7-A of the C.S.R. These are awaited.

In the meantime there does not appear to be any objection to treating the service of school master as superior for purposes of war allowance. From the nature of their duties, it is evident that they belong to the superior service but no authority for this is readily traceable. Perhaps Home Dept. may be kindly requested to consult the A.G.

Will A.G. kindly advise.

A.G.'s office.

The amendment to Article 396, C.S.R., referred to in the office note above has since been issued. Under this Article as now amended, read with article 798, C.S.R., a reference to the Govt. of India would be necessary for declaring the individual appointments of untrained teachers drawing less than Rs. 10 to be superior. There is, however, no audit objection to the Local Govt. according their sanction, as a special case, to the grant to these officials of war allowance on the scale for superior servants, even though their appointments would continue to be classed as inferior for the purposes of pensions etc.

W. allowance to teachers should be in my opinion, be ~~000000~~ that for superior servants. Our teachers for training are selected from the untrained teachers employed, and we are likely to have a better lot of men to select from if we give a war allowance of Rs 10. Then if we give a war allowance of Rs 10. Then appear to be sound grounds for differentiation between trained and untrained teachers in this respect. 19.7.19
