On 18/9 1919 From 2189.

The Hon'ble Mr. R. S. I., C.I.E.,
Secretary to the Government of India,

To

The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

Sir,

I am directed to inform you that should the Government of Madras consider it desirable to acquire any trophies as a Memorial of the Great War of 1914-1918, the Government have decided that any such trophies as may be available in arsenals and elsewhere may, under their orders, be allotted to different museums.

2. This allotment will take place when the supply of these articles from overseas ceases. A statement will then be issued showing what is available.

3. Pending the circulation of the list, application for an allotment should be made in advance with an indication of the kind of trophies most required.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Secretary to the Government of India.
