Notes connected with G.O.R. No. 210, dated 16-8-19.

Public Works Dept.

From the S.E., III Circle, No. 6647, d/4-8-19, applying for the exemption of S.H. Ananta-krishnan from the typewriting test.

2. The exemption sought for may be recommended to Home (Edn) u.o.

K.V.R. 7-8-19.

Home (Edn) might perhaps consider (with reference to proposal in Mr. Tottenham's report for reducing interdepartmental references) whether first exemptions in the case of leave vacancies up to say 6 months might not be delegated to this Dept. ~~The Govt.~~ I am not sure that they might not be delegated to S.Es. It is often impossible to get a passed man for a short leave vacancy.

A draft order is submitted.

2. The general question of delegation suggested above will be taken up separately.

It is not quite clear from the P.W.D. note at 'A' above whether power to sanction temporary exemptions is desired only in respect of typists posts or posts generally?

 In either case the question of delegation to the P.W.D. officers was examined only recently and the upshot of this was the issue of G.O. No. 1288 Ed. 2, of 26th Sep. 1918 and the existing powers of the C. & J. Suppy Engrs will be found in Subs. 4 (11) & 5 (10) of the Public Service Notif. It is known that existing powers do not enable them to exempt clerks from passing the typewriting test, but that is because the P.W.D. found on examination last year that applications for exemption on behalf of typewriting clerks were very few, if at all, thus establishing that no difficulty was being experienced in obtaining qualified typists for short vacancies. It cannot be that the position has changed since then to any considerable extent. If the P.W.D. still want ~~enhanced~~ further powers of exemption, they may be requested to put forth definite recommendations.

I have to ^{pass} to delegate ^{my} power to any officer on the spot.
 The number of school final men is so great now that in general thought not to be difficult to get school men. On the other hand temporary exemption raises a claim for further exemption and the ultimate result is to nullify even the bare number of the school final training.

Of course these remarks will not apply to unpardoned men who have already got into service & show good work
