C. Ramanuja Achariyar,
Registrar, Home Secretariat.

Copies of testimonials of Miss C.K. Kausalya.

High Court of Judicature,
Madras.
15th September 1919.

Miss Kausalya, B.A., L.T., is my niece. I can bear testimony to her good character and general ability; the examinations passed by her, I think, sufficiently indicate her capacity.

C. Krishnan,
Judge.

Presidency College,
Madras.
15th September 1919.

Miss Kausalya, was a student in this college attending lectures and practical class work in Botany for the B.A. degree in the year 1909-11 and passed the B.A. degree examination.

Her conduct etc., as a student were all that could be desired.

P.F. Fyson,
Professor of Botany.

Municipal Office,
Cannanore.
16th September 1919.

I have known Miss Cheruvari Kottieth Kausalya since her infancy. She belongs to a very respectable and talented family in Cannanore (North Malabar) and bears an exemplary character. She is the 1st lady graduate in arts in Malabar and is an ornament to our district. Her uncle is now a High Court Judge and her brother is a sub-judge in Malabar. I wish her every success.

K. Chantan,
Retired Dy. Collr. and 1st class Magistrate and Chairman,
Municipal Council, Cannanore.

Coimbatore,
17th September 1919.

Miss Kausalya has been working under me since June 1915. She has been an efficient mistress, a capable organiser, and has preserved a special interest in her own subject - Botany. I wish her all success in her attempt to further qualify herself for her future work.

J. Patterson,
Inspectress of Girls' schools,
Western circle.

Lakshmi Vilas,
Vepery, Madras.
17th September 1919.

I have much pleasure in certifying that Miss C.K. Kausalya during the four years, she had been a student under me in the Presidency College, Madras, gave me satisfaction by her good conduct and modest behaviour and by her intelligence, intelligence, industry and perseverance. She is respectable in her ways and bears a good character.

M. Krishnan, B.A., B.L., Hony. Presy. Magistrate, late
Asst. Professor, Presidency
College and retired Malayalam
Translator to Government.
