To

The Registrar,
Home Department.

Sir,

I have been a typewriting clerk for the past 23 years inclusive of the temporary service of 3 years in the Office of the Administrator General & Official Trustee where I started life. From the Administrator General's Office I secured a footing in the P.W. (Irrigation) Secretariat in 1899, where I served for about 18 years till July 1917 when I was taken on to the Home Department of the Secretariat.

I have passed the following technical examinations:-

- (i) Shorthand. ----- Intermediate grade.
- (ii) Typewriting. ----- Advanced
- (iii) Teachers' Test in Typewriting. Advanced grade.

It has always been my endeavour to discharge whatever duties are entrusted to me to the best of my ability and to the satisfaction of my superiors. I request a perusal of the testimonials enclosed.

I pray that you will be pleased to exempt me from the provisions of Article 1 of the Public Service notification, with a view to my employment in the regular clerical establishment of the Secretariat at an early opportunity. I may add that I am familiar with all the routine work in the Secretariat and can confidently take up the work of any lower Division clerk.

As this prayer is in consonance with the recent orders of Government in the Financial Department, No. 654 dated the 6th September 1919, which authorises the exemption of typists from the general educational qualifications in deserving cases, I request you may kindly be pleased to grant it.

For which act of kindness I shall every pray.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Subramaniam

Subject:- Exemption from exams. sub

The exempt principle of exempting from general educational qualifications hyper-sitting clerks of proved capacity has been already recognized by the Govt. and even prior to the issue of Pub. S.O. No.

654 d/ 6th Sep. 1919 there have been a number of cases in which typists in the Secretariat, officers of the Board of Rev. & of the D.P.D. were exempted from the operation of Art. 1 of the Public Service Notice on the recommendation of the superior officers concerned. Now the principle has been formally embodied in the S.O. refd. to above and the petitioner is the first case that has come up for disposal under the S.O.

2. Orders were solicited whether the petitioner's prayer will be complied with so that he may be absorbed in the lowest division of the regular clerical establishment should an opportunity arise.

is our best typist & is in charge of confidential routine work. He has put in twenty years' service & is in receipt of a salary of Rs 46 in the grade of Rs 20-1-50, having passed the advanced typewriting test. He is deserving of exemption for being brought on the regular clerical line. There is however no immediate prospect of a suitable vacancy in the lower division of this Deptt. to which he could be appointed. His present pay being Rs 46, ~~notwithstanding~~ ~~as it is difficult~~ he can only be appointed to a post on Rs 50. This cannot be done easily without overlooking the claims of a large number of clerks in the regular line. But the exemption may be granted now, as it will enable him to seek any clerical appointment elsewhere at least.

This exemption may be considered when a sop. vacancy becomes available.

Example of 65000 for service in the fleet.

22/9/14

It is respectfully

Subd: that the Fleet: clerical service is divided into two compartments a lower & an upper division. For the latter ordinarily S. P. L. & undergraduates are recruited & they can go up to the maximum of that division, which is only Rs 60 except in the Chief Fleet:
where the maximum limit is Rs 80. Seeing that exemption granted in the past to Fleet:
employees have been in respect of Rs 134120 of service in the lower

(F) 26.10.17 division, it is perhaps of at least whether a similar disposal may not be given in the present case. Subject to order a draft is subd:

It might say as in the case lower division of the Fleet. The members of the lower division do similar work. They must draw Rs 50 (46 + 10 of allowance)

4000000

Maximuming lowest in pay is $60 (each)
