from the District Judge, Nellore.

I have the honour to forward herewith the application dated the 26th August 1919 of M. Ramalinga Rao, sub protam 9th clerk of this court for exemption from the provisions of Article I of the Public Service Notification, for being recommended to the Government for very favourable consideration. The applicant has put in eight years of permanent service as a clerk on Rs.80, and has been found to be very capable and efficient and quite deserving of promotion to posts on higher pay and greater responsibility.

Most Honored Sir,

I, M. Ramalinga Rao, Sub-protam 9th clerk, beg to bring the following matter to your honor's kind notice and pray that it may meet with favourable consideration.

I am the permanent 6th clerk of the District Munsif's Court Kanigiri, on Rs.20/-. I have put in a total service of about 9 years besides my acting service of about 2½ years. In the year 1912 I was transferred on the same pay to the Additional District Munsif's Court, Nellore (the present Gudur District Munsif's Court). In January last I was again transferred to the District Court as 8th clerk but have since then been working as Assistant Nazir. Since my entertainment in service, I have been attending the Bench and doing other important work; and the officers, under whom I served, were all quite satisfied with my work. M.R. Ry T.V. Narayaniah Pantulu Garu and B.
Venkateswara Rao Pantulu Garu who <sup>successfully</sup> presided over the District Munsif's Court, Gudur, have spoken well of me as will be seen by their testimonials.

In giving effect to the new scheme, raising the pay of some of the members of the regular establishment, sanctioned from 1st of March 1919, my claims for promotion to a Rs.25/- post in the Kanigiri Court were overlooked and the post was given to one who was far my junior, by reason of the fact that I was not working in that Court. If I had been allowed to continue there I could have applied for and obtained exemption from examination rules with your honor's kind support. When the pay

M. Ramalinga Rao was a clerk under me during the three years I was in Nellore. During this period he did various branches of work with all of which he is conversant. He is intelligent and industrious and can discharge satisfactorily any work that he is entrusted with in a Munsif's Court. He is a clerk who deserves to be encouraged.

Sd. T.V. Narayaniah.

Additional District Munsif.

Ramalinga Rao is one of the very few clerks of this Court who do their duties thoroughly and well. He is hardworking and obedient. I shall feel happy whenever he gets his promotion which he well deserves.

pay of the process service establishment was raised recently, such exemption was obtained for Abdul Wahab Saheb and Sheikh Mahaboob Saheb who are both unpassed men but with very little knowledge of English and they were allowed to continue as 1st grade Amins although the pay of the post was raised to Rs.25/- I have however studied up to the matriculation class. Under the circumstances, I beg to request your honor to be so good as to address the High Court and obtain for me permanent exemption from the examination rules to enable me to hold appointments with salaries up to a maximum of Rs.30/-

I beg to remain,

Honored Sir,

Your honor's most obedient servant,
