ARCHAEOLOGICAL SURVEY OF INDIA PUBLICATIONS.

In accordance with the advice tendered in the annexed copy of a letter from the Superintendent of the Madras Government Press, I have the honour to apply, through you, to the Government of Madras to be allowed, either wholly free, or on favourable terms of purchase, the following Epigraphical Reports of the Archaeological Survey of India:

NEW IMPERIAL SERIES, A.S. INDIA.

Vol. IX, South Indian Inscriptions, (Volume I).

Vol. X Ditto. (Volume II), Parts I-II-III.

of item 143 at p 11 of Geo No 818 (1919)
2-7-19
[Volume X, South Indian Inscriptions (Volume II), Part IV, has already been presented to me, together with Volume XXXIX, South Indian Inscriptions.]

I should mention that, as an ex-Archaeological Commissioner of Ceylon, I have been honoured by being placed on the List of Free Recipients of the Publications of the Archaeological Survey of India. These I am continuing to receive duly, as issued from time to time.

With the assistance of the A.A.S for Epigraphy S.C, the volumes of the South Indian Inscriptions left unfinished by Professor Hultzsch The Comt. accepted the proposal and directed that the volumes to be published should be printed at the Comt. Press Co. No 842 (Pub) d 28.10.09. When Mr Venkayya forwarded to Comt. the proof of Vol II, Part IV (the first of the new series) the Comt. asked the Superintendent, Comt. Press to report the number of copies of the volume that would have to be printed & forwarding a copy of the distribution list. The S.G.P forwarded the distribution list relating to Vol III, Part II of the South Indian Inscriptions, which was substantially the same as that approved in Co. No 255 d 27.3.1890. As it was, however, considered to be out of date, Sir John Marshall was requested to revise the list and he suggested the adoption of the revised distribution list relating to Archaeological Survey reports forwarded by the Comt. of India this list which with a few additions and alterations was finally adopted by the Comt. will be found at pp 2-1A of Co. No ~~717~~ (Pub) d 14.6.13. It will be observed that

Mr. Bell's name is included in that list. It may be mentioned that ~~nam~~ his name does not find a place in the distribution list of Archaeological Survey Reports drawn up by the Govt of India in 1910 and that it was ~~only subsequently~~ ^{only subsequently} ~~added to the list~~ that he was appointed an honorary correspondent of the Archaeological department, to whom copies of Archaeological Survey Reports should be supplied free of charge.

2 From the above, it will appear that copies of Vol I and Vol II, Parts, I, II & III of the "Early Indian Inscriptions" were not presented to Mr Bell, as his name was not included in the distribution list relating to these volumes, which was ~~drawn up by~~ ~~nam~~ mainly based on the list approved by the Govt of India. For orders when
