THROUGH THE PROPER CHANNEL.

Sir,

The humble memorial of M. Manickam Chetty, Tracer in the Office of the Executive Engineer, North Presidency Division, most respectfully sheweth:--

That your memorialist was entertained as a tracer in the year 1912, and ever since is working in the said capacity to the entire satisfaction of the officers of the department.

That your memorialist has passed one of the three subjects prescribed in the G.O.No.1213 Educational dated 30-10-14, but was in spite of his repeated and strenuous attempts in the past three years failed to secure a pass in the remaining subjects; the chief reason for the failure being the strain he has to bear in supporting a big family in these days of famine, scarcity supplemented by the transgression of that age that would withstand the strain of study.

That your memorialist was granted a temporary exemption for a period of one year which expires in November 1919, after which date his services would be dispensed with, unless he is granted another exemption, and the only means of his maintaining himself and those of his family will be deprived of.

That ~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~ in consideration of your memorialist's services in the department, he was given a chance as an acting Sub Overseer in the North Presidency Division for a period of about 3 months.

That your

		2519 27-8 19	Temporary Tracer.	Rs. 20 - 1 - 35 27/-		Building drawing and estimate and Freehand Outline Drawing. Elementary Grade.		Year after year as sanction is renewed.		Permanent exemption is recommended.		Renewal of previous sanction accorded in G.O. No. R.229 Home (Education) dated 26th September 1918.		This candidate has gained sufficient experience. It is therefore desirable that he is exempted from the Examination rules and allowed to continue in the department. Please see this office Endorsement No. 799 S.E.		As the Tracer has put in more than 7 years service in the Department and has been doing his work very satisfactorily and as passed men are hard to get on the low pay of Rs. 20-1-35 his permanent exemption is recommended in the circumstances explained by the 2nd pt in his entry on the Tracer's application herewith sent.

Mr. Brown. 22/8/19

That your memorialist respectfully begs to lay the foregoing facts for sympathetic consideration with necessary application for exemption from the examination rules, and requests that Your Honour will be gracious enough to sanction for a permanent exemption from the operation of the said G.O. No. 1213 Edl. dated 30-10-14 and thus be the recipient of the gratitude and blessings of the memorialist and those of the large family, of which your memorialist is the only earning member.

I most respectfully beg to remain,
Your most obedient servant,

M. Manickam Chetty

Tracer, P. W. D.
Executive Engineer's Office,

Forwarded for favorable Consideration. The applicant is working very satisfactorily, knows his work thoroughly well, and is a neat and quick tracer - He richly deserves a permanent Exemption from the Examination rules.

C. No.	2201 A. B.
DATE	13.9.19

In GO No R 229 Home (Edu) of 26.9.18
the memorialist was granted exemption from the traces test till the publication of the results of the examinations in April & November 1919. It is understood that

26.9.19

that he has failed in the April exam.
 The traente has put in above than 7 years service in the dept & is well recommended by the S.E. for permanent exemption. But as the memorialist is holding only a temp post, there is no necessity for granting him permanent exemption. In view however of the note at page 9 of the notes with 20 No R 229 Home (ES) of 22.9.19, temporary exemption of the man from the tests, for so long as he continues to hold the post, may perhaps be recommended to Home (ES) "uo. Similar exemption was granted to one Mr. T. Manickan Mudaliar in 20 No 1081 Home (ES) of 8.9.19.

FD

16.9.19
 19.9.19

This seems to be a deserving case.
 Temporary exemption from the tests for so long as the traente continues to hold his present post may be sanctioned.
