Station Madras Dated the 3rd September 1919.

From (Name) H. Dodwell, Esq., M.A.,
As Principal Librarian, Commemara Public Library and (Designation) As Superintendent, Government Museum, Madras.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Home (Education) Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that Government may be moved to address the Secretary of State for the supply to the Commemara Public Library, of Acts of the Privy Council - Colonial Series - 5 Volumes. They belong to the same series of publications as the Calendars of State Papers, Colonial Series, preserved in the Public Record Office, London, which are supplied to this library.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

W. Oswell

How can it appear in the catalogue of the C. P. L.
when it is not in the library?
It refers to other publications
having a similar title in the Commemorative Library.

CR 1725 B. From the Principal Librarian, Commemorative Public Library, No. 162 Ch. St. 3-9-19.

The Privy Council being a judicial body and not a legislative one, the question arises whether it is correct to say "Acts of the Privy Council". No such publication appears in the catalogue of the Chief Secretariat Library and apparently not even in the catalogue of the Commemorative Library. Unless the correct name is mentioned in the letter to the Under Secy of State he may find it difficult to comply with the requisition correctly. In the circumstances the Principal Librarian may be requested to state the correct name of the publication and give particulars by which the books can be easily identified and collected by the India Office.

The name is quite correct. "Act" in this connection does not mean "statute" but rather "Resolution". The exact title is as given in my letter of 3-9-19 — "Acts of the Privy Council — Colonial Series. 5 vols." It is published by the Govt. publishers for the Public
