FROM

FRANCIS DEWSBURY, ESQ., B.A., LL.B.

Registrar, University of Madras,

To

The Secretary to Government,
Home (Education) Department.

Sir,

I am directed by the Syndicate to apply to the Government for sanction to the transfer to the University of Mr. V. Varada Acharya, clerk in the office of the Director of Public Instruction, Madras, who has been selected for appointment as Accountant in this office on a salary of Rs100-5-150.

The office of the Registrar of the University has recently been reorganised by the Syndicate on the recommendation of a committee. To this committee a member of the Syndicate's Finance Committee made representations that it was imperative that the Registrar's establishment should be reinforced by an officer experienced in accounts not only in view of the fact that the Head clerk, who directly under the Registrar had for many years been responsible for the accounts of his office, had been granted Extended leave preparatory to retirement and that the Registrar himself proposed in the near future to take long leave, but also in view of the great extension of the financial operations of the University in late years chiefly as a consequence of the Government of India grants, the accumulations of which now represent nearly Rs12,00,000. The Syndicate's committee acted upon these representations and recommended to the Syndicate the creation of anew appointment of Accountant on a salary, as stated above, of Rs100-5-150. The Syndicate accepted this recommendation and applications were invited for the appointment. The best applications received were from Government servants, the final selection being that of Mr. V. Varada Acharya of the office of the Director of Public Instruction, whose application was supported by the Director who, however, stated that Mr. Varada Achari's services could not be spared until about the beginning of November 1919. Mr. Varada Achari is understood to have put in 14 years service under Government qualifying for pension and to be now in charge of the accounts of the Audit Section of the office of the Director of Public Instruction, where he has had experience of checking the accounts of colleges and other Government institutions. He is therefore eligible for transfer under Art. 763 of the Civil Service Regulations. His present salary is stated to be Rs 75 per mensem. The Syndicate proposes that he should be transferred to the appointment of Accountant on the above stated salary of Rs100-5-150, and has resolved that the contribution for leave and pensionary allowances under Art 770 of the C.S.R. be paid by the University.

In support of this application I have to point out that for many years the finances of the University were of an extremely simple character and the University funds were almost entirely in the custody of the Accountant-General. Until the year 1913 no necessity was felt even for an annual budget. Of late years, however, the University finances have become much more complicated and have extended in many directions. Moreover for the past three years the budget has ^{been} under the new regulations, ~~been~~ placed annually before the Senate for sanction, and the Syndicate and the Registrar's office are required to keep their operations strictly within its limits. The University undertook the control of the work of the Tamil Lexicon Committee and will shortly have to face the necessity of providing funds for completing its work. Large expenditure is is contemplated upon new University buildings to house the University Library and the Oriental Manuscripts Library and to contain lecture rooms for Professors and the office of the Registrar. A large clerical staff will be required in connection with the libraries and recurring expenditure on the purchase of books and manuscripts will be considerable. It is probable that the development of the study of Indian Economics in the University will be another charge upon University finances. Consequently the Syndicate is of opinion that there is immediate necessity for the appointment of an officer with financial experience, who will be able not only to efficiently manage accounts but to advise the Syndicate as to the realization of investments to meet the heavy charges indicated above, many of which are likely to be incurred during the Registrar's absence.

In conclusion I may add that it ^{is} quite probable that had no suitable applications been received for the appointment of Accountant, the Syndicate would have addressed Government for the loan of an experienced officer to manage the University finances.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Francis B. ...

Submitted to Government through the Accountant General with reference to endorsement No. 1764 B-1 Home (Education) dated 15th September 1919.

2. As the clerk has put in more than 10 years' service under Government, he is eligible under the rules for transfer to foreign service. His leave and pensionary contribution under Article 770 of the Civil Service Regulations will have to be paid by the University. He should also be allowed the privilege of counting for pension his previous service under Government.

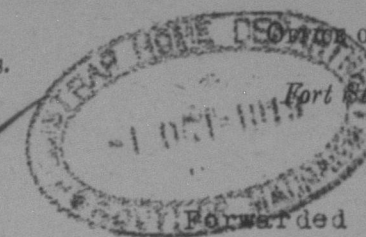

3. I have no objection to the transfer of the services of the clerk to the ~~Madras~~ University.

No. 6936

SENATE HOUSE, 9 - SEP 1919

Dear Mr. Ramachandra Rao,

I am writing to you officially on the question of the transfer of Mr. V. Varada Acharya of the office of the Director of Public Instruction to take up the appointment of Accountant in the University on a salary of Rs 100-5-150. The Vice-Chancellor has suggested that I should make a personal representation to you for sympathetic consideration of this application. He is of opinion that the University could not ^{do} better than obtain the services of an officer of experience under Government and suggested to me that instead of advertising the appointment, it might have been desirable to have addressed the Government for the loan of an experienced officer. As it happens, the best applicants are Government officers, and hence the necessity for addressing the Government on the matter. The situation is this. I have in my office no qualified or experienced financial officer. My Head clerk, who has had control of the finance directly under me, is on long leave preparatory to retirement. The University has now large funds in its possession and will shortly be required to make large expenditure on all kinds of objects. I am proposing to be away for an extended period during the next two or three years on leave long overdue, and the members of the Syndicate most closely in touch with University finance desire to see a responsible man in charge of the University accounts. I shall be glad if you will do what you can to put this matter through satisfactorily. Mr. Littlehales supports the application of Mr. Varadachari and I am sure he will also support this application for his transfer.

The intention of the Syndicate is that Mr. Varada

Acharya should on appointment receive the full salary of Rs100 and should reach the maximum of Rs150 by annual increments of Rs5, and that his salary should not be conditioned by the nature of his present appointment in the Director's office. His responsibilities in this office would seem to be of a nature to justify these special terms.

Yours sincerely,

Francis Dunsen

The official application for the transfer of M. R. Ry. V. Varada Acharya, clerk of the D. P. D's office, to university service is in the current file. The formal appl. may in the first instance be referred to the D. P. D. for remarks which might come to Govt. through the A. G. Draft and. or Subd. 2 It may be observed that the Syndicate should have obtained the prior sanction of Govt. for the creation of the appl. in question. Possibly a separate communication asking for sanction may be expected. ~~Per~~ Perhaps also it is preferable to write D-o. to Mr. Dunsen. If agreed to, the following draft is for appl. 1764 B-2 / 15-9-19
