No. 1386.

Station Madras, Dated the 12th September 1919.

From (Name) M.R.Ry., Rao Bahadur C. Krishnaswamy Row Avl.,
B.A., B.L.,
(Designation) Acting Chief Judge, Court of Small Causes, Madras.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Home (Education) Department.

Sir,

I have the honor to place before Government for their favourable consideration the case of B.V. Jeevarathnam Naidu, Typist of the Court of Small Causes, Madras, and recommend -- that, in the circumstances stated below, he may be exempted from the operation of article 1 of the Public Service Notification and that he may also be permitted to appear for the Special Test Examinations.

2. He entered service as a Typist in the year 1912 and having passed the Intermediate Grade Examination in Type-writing is now in receipt of a salary of Rs.30/- per mensem. He has, besides, passed the Shorthand Examination, Intermediate Grade, and is now doing the whole of the shorthand work of this Court, for which he is paid a duty allowance of Rs.5/- per mensem. He has also passed book-keeping and commercial correspondence, elementary grade.

3. He is reported to have been on several occasions entrusted in this office with work of a responsible nature and to have performed the same satisfactorily. During the time I was Third Judge of this Court in 1914 and 1915 and since July last his work came constantly under my notice and it was always done well.

4. It may perhaps be not out of place to mention that he had undergone training in the Indian Defence Force and was promoted as Lance Naik..

5. He is appearing for the Typewriting Examination, Advanced Grade and will on passing the same become eligible for the grade 30-1-50. As I would however like him to be taken on the regular establishment establishment and promoted, I recommend that the rule in article 1 of the Public Service Notification may be relaxed in his favour so as to permit him to hold an appointment in the clerical establishment up to a salary of Rs.50/- and that he be also given permission to appear for the Special Test Examinations.

6. I may add that as the exemption applied for in this case is general and not for any particular appointment, the application is not submitted in the form prescribed in the circular memorandum of the Educational Department, No.603, dated the 13th December 1906.

I have the honor to be,

S i r,

Your most obedient servant,

C. Thevaraswami

Ag. Chief Judge.

Para 3 on p. 20

It is presumed that the exemption from the examination rules asked for is only in respect of ^{clerical} appointments up to a salary of Rs 50 p.m. in the Small Cause Court itself.
The typist, who now gets Rs 30 + 5, has put in 7 years service and his work throughout is reported to have been satisfactory.

(F)

In view of the strong recommendation (and also in view of para 2 of 886547 and 886919) of the Chief Judge, submitted that this Deptt may agree to the exemption asked for 2. As regards the general permission to appear for special tests, it is submitted that, following precedents, he may be permitted to appear for the tests on not more than two occasions in each case. 3 With these remarks, the file may be returned to Education w/o.
